Dear Nadia

Once this has a case reference number then case progression can help, until then any further emails will have to go to general office.

Thank you

Kind regards
Mr Casey Liddle

Subject: Re: Case Reference Number – N461 Judicial Review Filed Today

Dear Mr Liddle,

Thank you for your email.

There is no case reference number yet, as the Court has not sealed or issued the N461 claim.

This is the reason I am urgently requesting sealing—so that a case number can be generated.

To assist your team:

- The full N461 Judicial Review bundle (single PDF) was filed earlier today
- The N463 urgent application was originally filed on 25 November 2025
- The Defendants were served on 27 November 2025
- The Administrative Court Listing Office also received the filing

I attach again the single consolidated PDF bundle for ease of reference.

Given my clinically urgent medical circumstances, evidenced by my physician (Dr Bruce Hayse), and the Court's duties under the Equality Act 2010 and PSED, I would be very grateful if the claim could be sealed today and a case number assigned so that the N463 can be immediately referred to a judge.

Please confirm receipt.

Kind regards,

Nadia Zahmoul

Subject: URGENT — Request for Immediate Listing: N461 Judicial Review (Severe Medical Risk – Vulnerable Litigant)

Importance: High

Dear Listing Officer,

I write to request urgent listing of my Judicial Review claim Zahmoul v Secretary of State for Justice & HMCTS, for which the full N461 bundle was filed earlier today.

I am a vulnerable litigant in person, and I attach the signed medical report from my treating physician, Dr Bruce Hayse, confirming:

- I am in a state of acute psychiatric risk,
- the stress arising from administrative uncertainty is materially worsening my condition,
- and that urgent judicial consideration is clinically necessary to prevent further deterioration.

Dr Hayse explicitly states that hospital admission may be required if this matter is not addressed promptly.

Given the medical urgency, the disability-related risks, and the fact that the N461 claim and N463 urgent application are now fully filed, I respectfully request that this matter is:

1. Referred immediately to the urgent judge, and
2. Given an expedited listing, as sought in Section 3 of the N463 form.

I would be grateful for confirmation that the Listing Office has received this escalation and that the matter is now with a judge.

Kind regards,

Nadia Zahmoul
