Re: Zahmoul v Zahmoul – High Court Ref: BV20D01752 – Appellant’s Notice (Form N161) and Appeal Bundle

Dear Sir/Madam,

I enclose, for filing, the Appellant’s Notice (Form N161) together with the accompanying appeal bundle in respect of my application for permission to appeal against the order of Mr Justice MacDonald dated 8 May 2025, dismissing my contempt application concerning perjury related to Oxus Acquisition Corp.

The bundle includes the following documents in the prescribed order:

1. Bundle Index and Contents Page
2. Appellant’s Notice (Form N161)
3. Grounds of Appeal
5. Skeleton Argument
6. Chronology of Key Events
7. Supporting Exhibits

The appeal raises significant issues concerning:

- Errors of law in the application of the contempt test under FPR Part 37;
- Failure to engage with material evidence including SEC filings and prospectuses;
- Procedural unfairness and disability discrimination contrary to FPR Part 3A, the Equality Act 2010, and Article 6 ECHR;

- Apparent bias; and
- The wider public interest in addressing perjury intersecting with international financial regulation.

The relief sought includes permission to appeal, setting aside the order of 8 May 2025, and remittal of the contempt application to a different High Court judge for rehearing.

A fee remission application (Form EX160) is submitted alongside this application.

Please confirm receipt and advise of any further directions or requirements.

Yours faithfully,

Ms. Nadia Zahmoul
Appellant, litigant in person
