If permission to appeal has been granted in part by the lower court, do you seek permission to appeal in respect of the grounds refused by the lower court?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Section 5 Other information required for the appeal

Please set out the order (or part of the order) you wish to appeal against

This appeal is brought against the order of Mr Justice MacDonald dated 8 May 2025, which dismissed my contempt application filed on 27 November 2024 (N600) concerning perjury and false representations made by the Respondent in relation to Oxus Acquisition Corp.

Have you lodged this notice with the court in time?
(There are different types of appeal - see Guidance Notes N161A)

☐ Yes ☒ No

If 'No' you must also complete
Part B of Section 10 and Section 11

Section 6 Grounds of appeal

Please state, in numbered paragraphs, on a separate sheet attached to this notice and entitled 'Grounds of Appeal' (also in the top right hand corner add your claim or case number and full name), why you are saying that the Judge who made the order you are appealing was wrong.

☒ I confirm that the grounds of appeal are attached to this notice.

If Yes, indicate in the following box if you do not wish the costs limits under CPR 45 to apply. If you have indicated that the claim is an Aarhus claim set out the grounds below

Section 9 What are you asking the Appeal Court to do?

I am asking the appeal court to:-
(please tick the appropriate box)

- ☒ set aside the order which I am appealing
- ☐ vary the order which I am appealing and substitute the following order. Set out in the following space the order you are asking for:-

- ☒ order a new trial

Section 10 Other applications

Complete this section only if you are making any additional applications.

Part A

- ☐ I apply for a stay of execution. (You must set out in Section 11 your reasons for seeking a stay of execution and evidence in support of your application.)

Part B

- ☒ I apply for an extension of time for filing my appeal notice. (You must set out in Section 11 the reasons for the delay and what steps you have taken since the decision you are appealing.)

Part C

- ☒ I apply for an order that:

I apply for:

1. An order setting aside the dismissal of the contempt application.
2. Remittal of the contempt application for rehearing before a different High Court judge.

(You must set out in Section 11 your reasons and your evidence in support of your application.)

In support of my application(s) in Section 10, I wish to rely upon the following reasons and evidence:

Part B: Request for Extension of Time

I respectfully request an extension of time to file an appeal against the order of 8 May 2025. I was unable to comply with the original 21-day deadline due to a combination of exceptional circumstances, including:

- I suffer from autism and PTSD, and was hospitalised for mental health breakdowns multiple times following the final hearing and was unable to attend the hearing of 8 May 2025 due to ill health.
- The participation measures under FPR Part 3A, which supported my access to the proceedings during the trial, were revoked without notice on 28 February 2024, and not reinstated thereafter. This left me unable to effectively communicate, draft applications, or understand the implications of the hearing of 8 May 2025..
- My disabilities, hospitalisations, homelessness, and financial hardship are mitigating factors and constitute clear injustice (Re D (A Child) [2020]).

These factors created a situation in which I was unable to protect my position or understand the consequences of inaction. The delay in filing this appeal is not due to negligence or disregard of court procedure, but due to the effects of disability, hardship, and lack of intermediary and support.

I therefore ask the Court to exercise its discretion to extend the time for filing this appeal in the interests of justice.

Brief history of proceedings

The underlying financial remedy trial was heard in February 2024. The Respondent, under oath and in his ES2 Statement of Assets, represented that his Founder Shares in Oxus Acquisition Corp were worthless. Documentary evidence filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) demonstrates that by 7 February 2024 those shares had vested upon completion of the Oxus/Borealis business combination, acquiring a value of approximately USD $500,000.

I issued a contempt application under Part 37 of the Family Procedure Rules and the Perjury Act 1911, supported by extensive documentary exhibits. On 8 May 2025, the High Court dismissed my application as "totally without merit."

Grounds of Appeal

Ground 1 – Error of Law: Misapplication of Contempt Principles

The judge failed to apply the correct test for contempt, namely whether false statements were (a) knowingly made, (b) material to the proceedings, and (c) capable of interfering with the administration of justice.

Ground 2 – Failure to Consider Material Evidence

The judge disregarded or suppressed documentary evidence including SEC filings signed by the Respondent, the SEC Prospectus dated 16 January 2024, and photographic evidence placing the Respondent at Nasdaq on 8 February 2024.

Ground 3 – Procedural Unfairness and Disability Discrimination

I was denied meaningful participation because my participation measures under FPR Part 3A were revoked without notice, despite my disabilities (autism, PTSD, and severe anxiety). This breached the Equality Act 2010 and Article 6 ECHR.

Ground 4 – Failure to Recognise the Gravity of Perjury

The dismissal failed to attach proper weight to the seriousness of perjury in High Court proceedings, particularly where linked to cross-border securities fraud and corporate misrepresentation, distorting the award and undermining judicial integrity.

Ground 5 – Appearance of Bias

The judge's characterisation of my applications as 'totally without merit,' while granting the Respondent's, creates the appearance of bias (Porter v Magill [2001] UKHL 67).

Vulnerability

Do you believe you, or a witness who will give evidence on your behalf, are vulnerable in any way which the court needs to consider?

- ☒ Yes. Please explain in what way you or the witness are vulnerable and what steps, support or adjustments you wish the court and the judge to consider.

I respectfully request participation measures including frequent breaks, clear instructions, the use of blinds, and an intermediary.

- ☐ No

Statement of Truth

This must be completed in support of the evidence in Section 11

I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against a person who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

- ☒ I believe that the facts stated in section 11 are true.
- ☐ The applicant believes that the facts stated in section 11 are true. I am authorised by the applicant to sign this statement.
