Dear Zoe,

Will you please tell the judge that you are out of funds and therefore, are unable to carry out the work on my behalf, including the D11 I am currently drafting and which I will submit today.

I asked you several times for a deadline regarding Oxus and received no reply.

I informed you that I was unwell and that my heartbeat was too fast. I informed you that my symptoms were unmanageable that I was going to Cromwell Hospital yesterday.

I told you I could not accept an open-ended request for the respondent to provide the information regarding Oxus, and that the absence of a deadline made me extremely distressed.

You did not respond to my emails requesting a deadline for Oxus.

I will be sending the D11 regarding Oxus at the end of the day today.

I will also be addressing Imerman, Coinbase and Forte Securities in the next few days.

Please advise Ms. Campbell and the judge that I will be emailing everyone because you are not in funds.

I will not allow anyone to put my life and my children's lives into the respondent's hands.

I refuse to be powerless, helpless, and voiceless.

I refuse to be cornered.

I refuse to be silenced.

With kind wishes,

Nadia

Importance: High

Dear Anita,

I hope you are well.
I would be most grateful if you could please pass this on to His Lordship.
This is material to the case and to the Final Hearing which took place before His Lordship on 19th - 28th February 2024.
I am copying counsels on both sides.
Thank you very much.

With my kind wishes,
Nadia

Your Lordship,

I am sincerely sorry to trouble Your Lordship so soon after the Final Hearing. The matter of Oxus Acquisition Corp. is very material to the case and came to my attention almost immediately after the trial ended. Despite writing to the respondent one week ago to request an explanation, we have not received a reply.

This open-ended situation is very harmful to me. I feel powerless, vulnerable, and extremely distressed. I find it impossible to put the children's and my future into the respondent's hands and wait without knowing how long I must wait.

I put the matter into Your Lordship's hands and if one week is not enough, I am happy to wait as long as Your Lordship would like me to.

At the Final Hearing and under oath, the respondent represented that his shares in Oxus Acquisition Corp. were "worth zero". In the asset schedule submitted for the Final Hearing, he reported 50,000 shares at a value of $0.00.

This is factually incorrect and constitutes a false statement.

1. The respondent was appointed to the Board of Directors of Oxus

Acquisition Corp. on 1st June 2022 and

2. On 7th June 2022 Form 3 “Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership of Securities” was filed with the SEC.
3. PAGE 340 of SEC PROSPECTUS (attached): “On June 7, 2022, 50,000 Founder Shares were transferred to Mr. Karim Zahmoul by the Sponsor. The fair value of the 50,000 Founder Shares granted to the Mr. Karim Zahmoul on June 7, 2022, was $0.02 million or $0.33 per share. The Founder Shares were granted subject to a performance condition (i.e., the occurrence of a Business Combination)”.
4. The Founder Shares were granted subject to a performance condition (i.e., the occurrence of a Business Combination).
5. The Business Combination occurred on 7th February 2024.
6. Newco began trading on Nasdaq on 8th February 2024 under the ticker symbol BRLS.
7. The Founder Shares lock-up period is defined in page 43 of the Prospectus filed with the SEC (attached) and in the attached SEC Filings Excerpts.

Conclusion:

The Final Hearing started on 19th February 2024.

At the time of the Final Hearing and when he testified under oath, the respondent knew (i) that the Business Combination had occurred and (ii) that the value of his 50,000 Founders Shares was not zero.

Email sent to the respondent's solicitors on 29th February 2024 (attached):

“Dear Valeria,

We attach documents in relation to the SPAC merger between Oxus and Borealis which closed on 7th February 2024. The post-merger stock has been trading on the NASDAQ since the 8th February 2024. In his ES2 dated 19.02.2024 he ascribes a nil value to his OXUS equity. Given that the merged entity (ticker BRLS) is trading at a stock price of $9.20 (and your client had 50,000 shares in the pre-merger OXUS) please can you explain the value of his stockholding with reference to the attached documents and any others in your clients possession – and why he ascribed a nil value to his equity in the ES2.

We look forward to hearing from you.”

Respectfully,

Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Brent,

THE FOLLOWING SHOWS THAT ONCE AGAIN, THE RESPONDENT IS TAKING ME AND THE COURT FOR FOOLS. Please send to the judge

The Oxus and Borealis M&A closed on 7 February 2024 and the Newco began trading on Nasdaq on 8 February 2024 under the ticker symbol BRSL.

1. The attached forms from the SEC provide documentary evidence of the following facts:
 1. The respondent has 50,000 Founder shares
 2. The grant value is $0.33 per share
 3. The shares are now listed on Nasdaq under ticker symbol BRSL
 4. The current market price is $9.20
 5. The current price appreciation (book value): 2588%
 6. The current market value of the respondent's shares: $443,500
 7. Lock-up period: one year
2. Warrants and Options granted to directors and founders have not been disclosed.
3. The Final Hearing before Justice MacDonald started on Monday 19th February. During his testimonies under oath the respondent represented that his shares in Oxus Acquisition Fund were worth zero. He also instructed his counsel to represent to the Court that his "shares in Oxus were on the side and were worth zero". This is a false representation. The shares owned by the respondent are worth $443,500. The lock-up period does not define the value of the shares. The respondent can borrow against the shares during the lock-up and can monetize them. He knows this. The key metric which determines the value of the shares is the CLOSING OF THE MERGER TRANSACTION. This happened on 7 February 2024, 11 days before the trial started.
THAT IS THE DATE WHICH DETERMINES THE VALUE OF THE RESPONDENT'S SHARES.

With kind wishes,
Nadia

Dear Anita,

I hope you are well.

As you probably know, I am acting in person as I no longer have the funds to pay for my legal costs. I attach the email sent yesterday with the notice of acting in person.

I would be most grateful if you could please pass this on to His Lordship as this is an urgent matter which is material to the case.

With my kind wishes,
Nadia

Your Lordship,

This is not an application to reopen the evidence.

I am not introducing any new evidence. I am also acting in person as no amount of money can be enough to pay for the extraordinary amount of work necessitated to untangle the respondent's transactions, disclosures, statements and etc.

I would like to draw the Court's attention to the false representations the respondent made under oath with regards to Oxus Acquisition Corp. during the Final Hearing.

The trial started on 19th February 2024. On that day, the respondent knew that the Business Combination had been consummated on 7th February 2024. The Business Combination date is crucial as it is the trigger for the respondent's 50,000 shares to become valuable.

The value of his Oxus shares is binary: it is zero if there is no Business Combination and it is marked-to-market starting on the exact day the Business Combination is effective, which was 7th February 2024, 10 days before the trial started.

Therefore, the respondent should have assigned a value of approximately $500,000 to the Oxus shares on ES2 starting on the 7th February 2024 and he should not have instructed his counsel to state that the "Oxus shares are worth nothing". In fact, he should have replaced Oxus shares with BRLS shares and he should have disclosed the number of BRLS shares he now owns given the exchange rate and the redemptions. Furthermore, the respondent has never told the Court how many warrants he received.

When he appeared before Your Lordship on 10th February 2024, the respondent when he appeared before Your Lordship on 19th February 2024, the respondent knew that the Business Combination had been consummated on 7th February 2024 and he knew that on 8th February 2024, the newly merged company began trading on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol BRLS. Oxus was retired from Nasdaq on that day.

He assigned a value of zero to the shares on his ES2 schedule dated 19th February 2024. This is an intentional false representation. It is absolutely false and dishonest.

He told the Court that his Oxus shares were “worth nothing”. This is a false representation, and this is dishonest.

In summary, during the Final Hearing before Your Lordship, the respondent intentionally misled the Court and me, he made false representations to the Court under oath, he mismarked his ES2 schedule, and he instructed his counsel to make factually incorrect statements in her submissions.

I attach a comprehensive review of what the respondent did, what he knew, when he knew it, and what he told the Court.

As a director of Oxus, the respondent signed the SEC filings of January and February 2024, so he cannot say that he was “overwhelmed” and “stressed”.

My previous solicitors emailed the respondent’s solicitors on 29th February 2024 requesting an explanation. I have not received a reply.

Your Lordship, I would like to say one more time that there is no new evidence in the attached statement. My only objective is to bring this to your attention as it is very material to my case. The statement is simply a reconstruction of the respondent’s tortuous and deceitful acts and how they fail to stand up to scrutiny.

Dear Zoe,

I am following up on the email exchange of yesterday.

As you are aware, I have been unwell for quite some time due to the abuse in the marriage and the respondent's conduct during the proceedings.

The trial pushed my PTSD symptoms into unprecedented territories. At present I am suffering from a rapid heartbeat condition, gastric pain, and my left hand is numb. My nervous system has been utterly destroyed. I am starting EMDR sessions next week and I will attend an inpatient trauma programme as soon as I have my financial independence..

I am incapable of representing myself for the judgement and for drafting the orders under the current conditions.

Also, I am unable to speak with or communicate with the respondent for the rest of my life.

In emails dated 6 and 18 March, 2024 you made two following two statements:

Statement 1 (email of 6 March 2024): "BRENT AND I WILL OBVIOUSLY COMPLY WITH OUR OBLIGATIONS TO THE COURT IN RELATION TO THE JUDGEMENT".

Statement 2 (email of 18 March 2024): "We are currently off the record and don't have instructions to come back on the record for the purposes of receipt of judgment and drafting the order. In the event that you find yourself in funds so that you can give us that instruction, we can discuss it then. "

Statements 1 and 2 are not consistent and I find this extremely confusing and distressing.

1. Which one of these two statements is true, and which one is false?
2. Is Brent representing me at the judgement?
3. Is Brent representing me for the drafting of the orders?
4. Are you representing me for the judgement?
5. Are you representing me for the drafting of the orders?
6. If any of the above answers is "No", please could you send me an

Dear Zoe,

Further to my email exchange with Faye, I have not heard back from you.

As such, I am completely in the dark regarding my representation for the judgement and the orders.

I am also in breach of the Detach loan agreement.

I will be hospitalized next week for gastric tests and ahead the hospitalization I must have full clarity on my representation for the judgement and for the orders.

I will write to the judge this evening to ask what he wants me to do and request his guidance. I will copy Brent.

This email is extremely confidential as the children and I are at risk. I have legitimate reasons to be extremely concerned for our safety and for our lives.

Dear Anita,

I hope you are well and had a wonderful Easter holiday.

I would be very grateful if you could please pass this on to His Lordship.

With my kind wishes,

Your Lordship,

I apologise for writing to Your Lordship while your judgement is still reserved, however I have grave concerns for the safety and security of the children and mine, and legitimate reasons to fear for our lives. These events are material and I feel strongly they should be brought to your attention because they are related to these proceedings and also represent a risk to our safety post-divorce.

In 2023, I was involved in two separate incidents which made me very concerned for our safety. I took steps and reported them to the police. The third incident happened on Sunday 24th March while I was out in Kensington, London with our 16-year-old daughter Lila Mae.

I believe that these tangible threats to our security are directly related to the respondent's position as a Director with Oxus Acquisition Corp. ("Oxus") and his affiliation with Kenes Rakishev ("Rakishev") who ultimately controls Oxus. I believe the respondent is involved in money laundering activities for Kazakh kleptocrats and these activities are intended to circumvent the US and EU sanctions, and gain access to the capital markets, international banking networks, and global investment opportunities. In addition, I believe the people who hired the respondent are tasked with funding the interference strategy with the U.S. presidential elections in 2024 in order to influence the outcome.

The attached statement provides the factual evidence and the new material information which has emerged since the final hearing.

I have informed Special Agent [REDACTED] IRS Criminal Investigations, Cyber Unit, New York Field Office as he has an ongoing criminal investigation into the respondent's money laundering activities of prostitution proceeds since September 2023. My email to IRS CI is attached.

I have been advised to refer the matter to the DOJ's "KleptoCapture Task Force" and I was given two contact names.

I have a direct introduction to Hunter Biden through a very close friend; however, I have been advised to hold off until I speak with Special Agent McGarry.

In the U.K. I am preparing to file a referral with the FCA.

I am very worried for the children's safety and mine. The people the respondent is involved with are trying to intimidate me and they are very dangerous. I will do everything I can to protect the children and myself from these assassins.

I do not have legal representation due to lack of funding and as I explain in the attached statement, the respondent has not made the MPS payments. The children and I have no home (we cannot stay in Wyoming because I cannot pay the maintenance charges for the property) and we have no financial resources for our living expenses. The only account I have visibility into is our joint account at Bank of Jackson Hole which currently has a balance of $82,267.

I entrust our safety into your hands.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

This is harming the children, and we have no financial resources.

This is extremely urgent.

Dear Karen,

Please would you pass this on to the judge.

I apologize for the multiple emails, but it is very important that the court has all the information as I currently do not have legal representation and the children and I are in danger.

With my kind wishes,
Nadia

Dear judge,

I apologize for the multiple emails, however I am without funds and without legal representation and it is very important that the High Court Family Division has complete and accurate information regarding this case and the threats, intimidation, and risks to the children's safety and mine.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul

I am sorry for the multiple emails, unfortunately my Outlook has a constraint of 25MB.

I wanted to share an additional material information.

The IRS Criminal Investigations Cyber Unit has an ongoing investigation since September 2023 into Mr. Zahmoul's criminal activities. I have all the referral information if you would like me to send it.

Dear Brent,

Thank you for your email and for confirming that I am not officially represented.

I haven't read the typographies corrections, and I haven't read the draft order since the day I received it.

Could you please confirm the following:

1. Do I have the right to be represented properly? If I want to have legal counsel for the judgement and for the appeal but cannot afford to pay, does the court have a duty to make sure I am on equal footings and have a fair and equitable proceeding?
2. Who do I have to appeal to in order to have the MPS money to buy groceries? Do I go to Social Services for food?
3. As you know, I initiated divorce proceedings four years ago because of domestic abuse. Therefore, I will never, ever talk to the respondent or communicate with him, which makes the judgement kind of sadistic. I also obviously have been asking for four years to have no contact with him. How do get an application for a molestation order?

Thank you very much. I will keep you posted.

Hi Nadia

As you can see from the document the corrections and obvious errors were typos, a couple of errors on the maths, and a couple of points where my recollection (as opposed to interpretation) of the evidence differed from factual statements in the judgment.

As it happens these are exactly the errors / omissions I would have identified had I been instructed by you. Of course I made clear that this was without prejudice to your right to produce your own errors / omissions.

You will need to obtain your own representation urgently and they will advise you on the strict time limits for appealing and the procedure you must follow (if that is what you wish to do)

Best wishes

Brent

Dear Karen

I attach a list of what I have identified as corrections / errors.

I do so, mindful as I am of my obligation to try and help the Court and his Lordship, and because I received your email inviting me to assist.

I must however add that I am not instructed by Mrs. Zahmoul and she will almost certainly have her own list of corrections / errors / material omissions that she will wish to provide to you. Please do not treat the attached document as a substitution or replacement for anything which Mrs. Zahmoul, acting in person, may wish the judge to consider. That is not the purpose or intent of the document which I am attaching. It is simply an attempt to help.

Dear Karen,

I am following up on my earlier email.

I would be grateful if you could please send this to the judge urgently.

I am unable to prepare my application to appeal the judgement because I do not have any funds for legal representation.

I would like to file my corrections for the draft and prepare the application to appeal but I cannot do this without legal counsel as it is very technical.

I also need to apply urgently for a Non-Molestation Order and for enforcement of the MPS order.

I cannot speak with the respondent, and I will not communicate with him. Even when I don't have any money.

I need legal counsel to assist me with the judgement, the appeal of the judgement, the Non-Molestation order and the MPS.

Without legal counsel, I will not have a fair and equitable trial. I need legal counsel to draft the application for the appeal and I definitely intend to appeal the judgement.

I would be grateful for your guidance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Karen,

I hope you are well.

Could you please advise his lordship that I intend to appeal the judgement and apply for a Non-Molestation Order.

However, I have no funds and Mr. Zahmoul has not sent any money in March and April. He is in breach of the MPS order, as I mentioned in previous emails.

I have no funds for groceries for the children and no home.

I do not speak with Mr. Zahmoul and will never have contact with him ever again.

I cannot make the applications for the Non-Molestation Order, Appeal the judgement, and the orders without legal advice. Mr. Zahmoul's lack of legal advice is tactical.

I am not able to take life changing decisions without legal advice and I cannot have any contact with Mr. Zahmoul.

At present, the children and I are under extreme pressure and financial abuse in order to break me and serve Mr. Zahmoul's interests.

The children are paying a very high price for this financial abuse, and I cannot appeal the judgement without legal advice for a case with assets of this size.

Could you please ask his lordship for an extension until I have legal advice and can submit my list of omissions regarding the draft judgement, and my applications to appeal and for the Molestation Order.

Also, could you please let me know what the timeline is.

Sincerely,

Dear Judge,

I intend to prepare an application to appeal the judgement, and an application for a Non-Molestation order.

I am unable to prepare these without legal counsel and I do not have any financial resources to pay for my legal advice.

Furthermore, the respondent has not made the payments under the MPS order, and the children and I have been subjected to his coercive control and financial abuse for four years.

Finally, I do not speak with the respondent and will not have any contact with him for the rest of my life. I will not discuss any financial matters with him and will not be able to prepare court orders without legal representation. I will address these issues in my appeal application and shall start as soon as I have funding for my legal representation.

Further to the final judgement this morning, I will be appealing the judgement and am in the process of arranging assistance.

Please could you confirm that the judge in charge with Family Appeals is the Honourable Sir Jonathan Cohen and confirm what the time limits for appeal are?

I oppose anonymization of the judgement; please would you confirm what the time limit for submissions is.

I also intend to make an application for a non-molestation order and until then I am asking that counsel be mindful in their work for the court that they should not under any circumstances include any matter that necessitates contact between the respondent and me, especially financial matters, as it is extremely harmful to me and the history of mental abuse and coercive control is evidenced in my Part 25 statement and evidence submitted to the court.

Dear Karen,

I need to ask permission from the judge to extend time by a week (to 3/5/24) to file:

1. Proposed anonymised judgment;
2. Draft order; and
3. Written submissions on costs.

Both parties are currently in person.

I consider I have a duty to the court to deal with 1 and 2 as part of my original instructions and will complete these.

We would like to arrange to have proper costs submissions sent to the court either by counsel or by the parties in person.

My professional commitments and the complicated mix of parties/lawyers currently engaged/involved in the process has slowed down my ability to complete the tasks at 1 – 3 above.

I have permission from Mr Zahmoul to seek this extension and would be very grateful if the court would accommodate my request for my professional and practical difficulties.

I would be very grateful if you would forward this email to the judge.

Thank you Karen.

Best wishes,

Dear Karen,

I need to understand the process as tomorrow will be seven days from the date the judgement was handed down.

I have set out my position in my email sent today at 8:09pm and I do not wish to be prejudiced in these proceedings as a result of the financial abuse the respondent is inflicting on me.

I wish to appeal against the judgement and if I have missed any time limits or if the form incorrect, this cannot be used against me as the matter is very complex and I cannot have a fair trial under the current circumstances and without legal advice.

Could you please ask the judge if the time limit to appeal the judgement is the 25th of April 2024, and if it is, could you please ask him to extend the time limit until I have food, accommodation, and legal advice. I have started my list of corrections and omissions, but it is very long and it makes more sense to submit with the appeal.

With kind wishes,

Nadia

Priority: High

Dear Judge,

This is an urgent request for assistance with enforcement of your MPS order made on 30 June 2023.

The court has been informed several times that the respondent is in violation of the MPS order, and the children and I have no financial resources whatsoever for our basic needs. The court has not taken any action to enforce the MPS order.

I am without funds for food, accommodation, and basic necessities and I am without legal representation to assist me in contacting the respondent and taking the necessary legal steps to enforce the MPS order.

The children and I are vulnerable persons and if the court cannot assist us with enforcing the MPS order, I don't know who to turn to for assistance.

This is an inhumane situation, and I am asking for urgent assistance against the extreme financial abuse and coercive control the respondent is subjecting us to.

The respondent has been abusing his control of our financial assets for four years. The timing is tactical and is obvious to all. This is unacceptable.

The children are innocent victims.

Who can enforce the MPS order? What will it take before we get assistance?

I would be very grateful for Your Lordship's urgent assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Subject: Zahmoul v Zahmoul
Importance: High

Dear Judge,
I need permission and court action to file the following:

1. I seek to take court action against the Judgement made on 18 April 2024 and I seek to file an application for a judicial review with the High Court.
2. I seek your permission to appeal the Judgement of 18 April 2024 as set out in my Appellant's Notice FP161 form sent to you on 17 April 2024.
3. I seek to join Mr. Rakishev and Hogan Lovell to the civil proceedings. They are necessary for a fair, independent, and impartial trial. I cannot have a fair trial where the respondent is supported in the proceedings by "invisible" parties, not when those parties order acts of violence against my children and me. My children's lives and mine are in immediate danger, we have been threatened several times and I have submitted the information and the evidence to Your Lordship. I seek to join them to the proceedings in order to have a fair, independent, and impartial trial.

4. I seek a Stay of the Proceedings until I have food and accommodation. It is illegal to force me into a tradeoff of my absolute human rights under Articles 2 and 6. It is illegal to fast track the Proceedings when I am hungry and homeless as a result of the respondent's breach of your order for MPS payments, as set out in my Appellant's Notice FP161. The Human Rights Act of 1998 protects both rights, not one or the other.

1. Human Rights Articles 2 and 6

My human rights are protected by the Human Rights Act of 1998 as set out in the European Convention on Human Rights. My absolute rights under Article 2 (the right to life) and Article 6 (the right to a fair trial) have been breached. My right to live and my right to a fair, independent, impartial trial have been breached. The way the decision was reached is wrong and I seek to cancel the judgement and demand compensation.

2. Appellant's Notice FP161

I sent Your Lordship my Appellant's Notice FP161 on 23 April 2024 and I seek your permission to appeal against the Judgement. I am not able to pay the Court Fees due to lack of funds. I do not have any financial resources because the respondent is in breach of the MPS order. I have informed the court several times that the respondent is in breach of the order you made on 30 June 2023 paragraph 7.1 Maintenance Pending Suit. The respondent has failed to make the payments for March and April 2024. MPS payments must now include rent as I have not been able to use the property in Wyoming since 1st February 2024 due to maintenance charges. Outstanding MPS payments of £51,524 (£18,762 per month in April and May, £7,000 per month for rent in February, March). I have no funds for food, accommodation, and basic necessities for the children and myself. I don't know the time limit to file my Appellant's Notice FP161 and I don't know the time limit to file my corrections to the Judgement. I am busy trying to protect my right to life and my right to a fair trial. The respondent's breach with your MPS order means that I have to spend my time looking for money for food and accommodation, at the risk of not having a fair trial. This tradeoff in my Absolute human rights between Article 2 and Article 6 is illegal, unethical, and inhuman.

3. Join Mr. Kenes Rakishev and Hogan Lovells to the Proceedings.

I seek to join Rakishev and Hogan Lovells to these Proceedings because they are directly related to the threat to the children's lives and mine. The respondent has tried to distance himself from Mr. Kenes Rakishev, Kazakhstan, Hogan Lovells, and the Accorda, but the links are well established and evidenced in documents filed in the Proceedings and in my emails to Your Lordship on 7 March 2024 and on 9 April 2024. In particular, evidence sent to Your Lordship on 9 April 2024 states that one of the parties' minor children and I were involved in an incident on 24 March 2024 which is directly related to the Proceedings, and which represents a direct threat to our lives. Furthermore, evidence sent to Your Lordship on 9 April 2024 demonstrates that Mr. Kenes Rakishev and the respondent are business partners and explains why this business association presents an immediate danger to the children's lives and mine. Rakishev is well known to the courts. He oversaw the restructuring of BTA Bank following the bank's collapse in 2009 and became Chairman and CEO of BTA Bank in 2014. Mr. Hardman, partner at Hogan Lovells, oversees Rakishev's overall legal strategy and is known for his aggressive tactics (see NZ1 attached). Rakishev is linked to Ramzan Kadyrov, Head of the Chechen Republic, and designated by OFAC pursuant to the Russia Magnitsky Act "for being responsible for extrajudicial killing, torture, or other gross violations of internationally recognized human rights". According to a U.S. lawsuit, "Kazakhstan v. Felix Sater", "Rakishev is reputed to have raped underage girls in Russia" and organized "no holds barred" fighting contests involving eight-year-old children. The defendant (Felix Sater) stated that he was "forced to hide in Israel for several months because Kenes Rakishev had, through Kadyrov, hired Chechen hit men to murder him". For these reasons, it is essential that Rakishev and Hogan Lovells be joined to the Proceedings because I am attesting that they are providing significant legal and financial support to the respondent, and I cannot have a fair trial if they remain in hiding. I seek transparency in the Proceedings above all and I seek to see in person those who threaten my children and me.

4. Stay of the Proceedings and Confidentiality to Protect our Lives.

I seek a Stay of the Proceedings until I have food and accommodation, and until I have free legal help and protection for the children and me. These matters are complex and involve a direct threat to my children's lives and mine. I seek a Stay of the Proceedings because without a stay, the Proceedings and the Judgement would be unfair, inequitable and breach my human rights to life and to a fair trial. I am requesting that the information in this email remains confidential. I have copied Mr. Allen, Joint Head of 29 Bedford Row Chambers because Ms. Campbell has a professional conflict of interest as she represents the respondent. Please note that Mr. Molyneux works at 29 Bedford Row Chambers as well. The email sent by Ms. Campbell in exhibit NZ2 in which she copied the respondent represents an immediate threat to my safety and that of the children.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Judge,

I respectfully seek your direction regarding the respondent's non-compliance with your MPS order, as set out in my earlier email to Ms. Campbell. She is unable to assist with her client's non-compliance with the order.

I cannot function without food and accommodation, and I am unable to work on my application to the Court of Appeal without food and accommodation.

If the court cannot enforce the MPS order, I would respectfully ask if you would let me know who can enforce the order.

Mr. Molyneux is not instructed by me and does not represent my best interests. I would like his name removed from the judgement handed down because it is confusing and inaccurate at this stage. I seek transparency, fairness, impartiality, and equity.

My rights to life and to a fair trial have been infringed. I cannot participate in my trial without food, without accommodation, and without money for the children and my basic needs.

I seek to have equal footing and a fair trial. This begins with my right to life, my right to enforce the MPS order.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Importance: High

Dear Ms. Campbell,

Your client is in breach of the order made by Justice MacDonald on 30 June 2023 paragraph 7.1 Maintenance Pending Suit.

He has failed to make the MPS payments for the months of March and April 2024 and must now include rent as the children and I have not been able to use the property in Wyoming since 1st February 2024 due to maintenance charges. I have informed the court several times that the respondent is in violation of the MPS order, and outstanding MPS payments are £51,524 (£18,762 per month in April and May plus £7,000 per month for rent in February, March).

I am without funds for food, accommodation, and basic necessities for the children and myself.

In circumstances where I am working day and night on my application to the Court of Appeals without legal assistance, your client's financial bullying and coercive control is obviously tactical, and he is literally starving me off of food.

Furthermore, as has been extremely evident during the trial, there are to be absolutely no contacts between the respondent and me whatsoever. For the avoidance of doubt, this applies to any orders arising from the final judgement which involves the children and myself: no contacts and no financial comingling under any circumstances, forever.

I am busy working day and night to protect my right to life and my right to a fair trial. Your client's non-compliance with the judge's MPS order means that I have to spend my time looking for money for food and accommodation, at the risk of not having a fair trial.

This tradeoff is illegal, unethical, and inhumane.

I am respectfully requesting that you comply with your ethical duties and code of conduct contained in the BSB handbook.

Your duty under Rule rC3.4 includes drawing to the attention of the court any decision or provision which may be adverse to the interests of your client . It is particularly important where you are appearing against a litigant who is not legally represented. You are obliged by CD2 to promote and to protect your client's interests so far as that is consistent with the law and with your overriding duty to the court under CD1.

Guidance gC6 of the BSB Handbook states that: "You are obliged by CD2 to promote and to protect your client's interests so far as that is consistent with the law and with your overriding duty to the court under CD1".

Surely, you must report a situation where as a result of your client's misconduct and his non-compliance with the judge's MPS order, the children and I are starving with no food, no accommodation, and no money for our basic needs, can you?

If you are not able to enforce the MPS order, then please let me know who can?

This is our human right to life.

Secondly, please ask the court for an extension for the order, the submissions for anonymization, and the submissions for costs. I am working on the appeal of the judgement by myself, without legal assistance, without food, without accommodation, and without money for the children and my basic human needs.

It would be extremely unfair to continue such legally complex process under these circumstances of financial and economic abuse which are intended to brow beat me into submission.

The trial and justice must follow a process which is fair, impartial, and equitable. Having no food and no home is inhumane and is a violation of my human rights to life and to a fair trial.

Until I am on equal footing and until I have food, accommodation, and until my basic needs are met, it is illegal, unfair, and unequitable to pursue these legal proceedings while I am being financially persecuted and starved.

You and the Bar must immediately request that the court proceedings be paused and extended until I am on equal footings and until I have food, accommodation, and my basic needs are met. If not, this will result in an infringement of my right to a fair trial, which includes my right to appeal the judgement.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Excerpts from the BSB Handbook

Rules

rC3

You owe a duty to the court to act with independence in the interests of justice. This duty overrides any inconsistent obligations which you may have (other than obligations under the criminal law). It includes the following specific obligations which apply whether you are acting as an advocate or are otherwise involved in the conduct of litigation in whatever role (with the exception of Rule C3.1 below, which applies when acting as an advocate):

1. you must not knowingly or recklessly mislead or attempt to mislead the court;
2. you must not abuse your role as an advocate;
3. you must take reasonable steps to avoid wasting the court's time;
4. you must take reasonable steps to ensure that the court has before it all relevant decisions and legislative provisions;
5. you must ensure that your ability to act independently is not compromised.

rC4

Your duty to act in the best interests of each client is subject to your duty to the court.

rC5

Your duty to the court does not require you to act in breach of your duty to keep the affairs of each client confidential.

Not misleading the court

rC6

Your duty not to mislead the court will include the following obligations:

1. you must not:
 - a. make submissions, representations or any other statement; or
 - b. ask questions which suggest facts to witnesses which you know, or are instructed, are untrue or misleading.
2. you must not call witnesses to give evidence or put affidavits or witness statements to the court which you know, or are instructed , are untrue or misleading, unless you make clear to the court the true position as known by or instructed to you

Guidance

gC4

As to your duty not to mislead the court:

1. knowingly misleading the court includes being complicit in another person misleading the court;
2. knowingly misleading the court also includes inadvertently misleading the court if you later realise that you have misled the court , and you fail to correct the position;
3. recklessly means being indifferent to the truth, or not caring whether something is true or false; and
4. the duty continues to apply for the duration of the case.

gC5

Your duty under Rule rC3.4 includes drawing to the attention of the court any decision or provision which may be adverse to the interests of your client . It is particularly important where you are appearing against a litigant who is not legally represented.

gC6

You are obliged by CD2 to promote and to protect your client's interests so far as that is consistent with the law and with your overriding duty to the court under CD1. Your duty to the court does not prevent you from putting forward your client's case simply because you do not believe that the facts are as your client states them to be (or as you, on your client's behalf, state them to be), as long as any positive case you put forward accords with your instructions and you do not mislead the court . Your role when acting as an advocate or conducting litigation is to present your client's case, and it is not for you to decide whether your client's case is to be believed.

gC7

For example, you are entitled and it may often be appropriate to draw to the witness's attention other evidence which appears to conflict with what the witness is saying and you are entitled to indicate that a court may find a particular piece of evidence difficult to accept. But if the witness maintains that the evidence is true, it should be recorded in the witness statement and you will not be misleading the court if you call the witness to confirm their witness statement. Equally, there may be circumstances where you call a hostile witness whose evidence you are instructed is untrue. You will not be in breach of Rule rC6 if you make the position clear to the court . See, further, the guidance at gC14.

gC8

As set out in Rule rC5, your duty to the court does not permit or require you to disclose confidential information which you have obtained in the course of your instructions and which your client has not authorised you to disclose to the court . However, Rule rC6 requires you not knowingly to mislead the court . There may be situations where you have obligations under both these rules.

gC9

Rule rC4 makes it clear that your duty to act in the best interests of your client is subject to your duty to the court . For example, if your client were to tell you that they have committed the crime with which they were charged, in order to be able to ensure compliance with Rule rC4 on the one hand and Rule rC3 and Rule rC6 on the other:

1. you would not be entitled to disclose that information to the court without your client's consent; and
2. you would not be misleading the court if, after your client had entered a plea of 'not guilty', you were to test in cross-examination the reliability of the evidence of the prosecution witnesses and then address the jury to the effect that the prosecution had not succeeded in making them sure of your client's guilt.

gC10

However, you would be misleading the court and would therefore be in breach of Rules rC5 and rC6 if you were to set up a positive case inconsistent with the confession, as for example by:

1. suggesting to prosecution witnesses, calling your client or your witnesses to show; or submitting to the jury, that your client did not commit the crime; or
2. suggesting that someone else had done so; or
3. putting forward an alibi.

gC11

If there is a risk that the court will be misled unless you disclose confidential information which you have learned in the course of your instructions , you should ask the client for permission to disclose it to the court . If your client refuses to allow you to make the disclosure you must cease to act, and return your instructions : see Rules rC25 to rC27 below. In these circumstances you must not reveal the information to the court .

Rule C7

rC7

Where you are acting as an advocate, your duty not to abuse your role includes the following obligations:

1. you must not make statements or ask questions merely to insult, humiliate or annoy a witness or any other person;
2. you must not make a serious allegation against a witness whom you have had an opportunity to cross-examine unless you have given that witness a chance to answer the allegation in cross-examination;
3. you must not make a serious allegation against any person, or suggest that a person is guilty of a crime with which your client is charged unless:
 - a. you have reasonable grounds for the allegation; and
 - b. the allegation is relevant to your client's case or the credibility of a witness; and

- c. where the allegation relates to a third party, you avoid naming them in open court unless this is reasonably necessary.
4. you must not put forward to the court a personal opinion of the facts or the law unless you are invited or required to do so by the court or by law.

Rules C8-C9 - Honesty, integrity and independence

rC9

Your duty to act with honesty and with integrity under CD3 includes the following requirements:

1. you must not knowingly or recklessly mislead or attempt to mislead anyone;
2. you must not draft any statement of case, witness statement, affidavit or other document containing:
 - a. any statement of fact or contention which is not supported by your client or by your instructions ;
 - b. any contention which you do not consider to be properly arguable;
 - c. any allegation of fraud, unless you have clear instructions to allege fraud and you have reasonably credible material which establishes an arguable case of fraud;
 - d. (in the case of a witness statement or affidavit) any statement of fact other than the evidence which you reasonably believe the witness would give if the witness were giving evidence orally;
3. you must not encourage a witness to give evidence which is misleading or untruthful;
4. you must not rehearse, practise with or coach a witness in respect of their evidence;
5. unless you have the permission of the representative for the opposing side or of the court , you must not communicate with any witness (including your client) about the case while the witness is giving evidence;
6. you must not make, or offer to make, payments to any witness which are contingent on their evidence or on the outcome of the case;
7. you must only propose, or accept, fee arrangements which are legal.

Outcomes

oC16

Instructions are not accepted, refused, or returned in circumstances which adversely affect the administration of justice, access to justice or (so far as compatible with these) the best interests of the client.

Dear Alexis

Thank you for the draft (although as I think you have seen from previous emails copied to you Mrs Zahmoul does not in any event wish me to be involved in drafting the order).

The Code of Conduct also appears to prevent ongoing involvement by me in this process where my professional client is no longer instructed. Indeed I have sought guidance from the Bar Ethics line on this point.

If you are working on a referral basis and your professional client withdraws, you are no longer instructed and cannot continue to act unless appointed by the court, or you otherwise receive new instructions. You will not be bound by the cab rank rule if appointed by the court. For these purposes working on a “referral basis” means where a professional client instructs a BSB authorised individual to provide legal services on behalf of one of that professional client’s own clients”

Obviously I want to fulfil any professional obligations I have to the Court but must not breach the Code of Conduct. I am copying the Judge’s clerk in so that the judge can see the difficulty that has arisen.

Best wishes

Dear Ms Zahmoul,

Please see below reply from His Lordship:

The court is not able to provide legal advice to litigants. The court is likewise not able to make orders in response to email communications. If a party seeks an order from the court, then an application must be made in the proper form having regard to the rules of court and on notice to the other party or parties to proceedings.

Dear Karen,

Thank you for your email.

This is exactly the problem. I don't know the process; I thought the order was sufficient to protect the children from economic abuse, but I don't know what to do in circumstances where the respondent is in breach of the judge's order, with no consequences to him. I don't know which form to send.

I will send a D-11 form for the enforcement of the MPS order.

Important: Please be aware that I will not copy the respondent on my emails because it feels like rape to me. It makes me extremely distressed and triggers physiological symptoms of PTSD, including rapid heartbeats, chest oppression, stuttering, shallow breathing, mutism, rocking my upper body, hyper-sensitivity to sounds, startle, hypervigilance, feelings of powerlessness and rage, and a host of other symptoms which were in evidence during the trial. I will copy his representatives.

Until I make the proper applications for domestic abuse, coercive control, and mental cruelty, I would be grateful if all those involved do not put me in a situation of contact with the respondent, including emails.

With kind wishes,
Nadia

Ms. Campbell,

Having received your draft order and costs, I am requesting full transparency regarding the respondent's legal representation.

Please can you confirm how you are receiving his instructions for the order and for the costs?

Are Crisp instructed by him? Are you instructed by him?

I don't wish to go through the order on a had hoc basis and my focus right now is to enforce the MPS in order to have money for food and accommodation. Until then, my rights for a fair trial must not be infringed. I cannot participate in the process and defend my legal rights and my best interests because I am hungry, without a home, and without money for my basic needs. I am also without legal representation. This order, the costs and the anonymization are not agreed and cannot be addressed until I have equal footing and food.

A trial under duress and coercion is not a fair trial.

Once I have the outstanding MPS money including rent, my top priority will be the application to the Appeals Court.

However, I can already tell you for the record, that nothing in the order and the costs is agreed.

For instance, the watches you listed in the order do not belong to the respondent. As you know, Brent asked me during the trial and for the record, and I identified on the record during the trial which ones are mine and which ones may belong to the respondent. The judge confirmed it. It is on the record. Please check the trial records and transcripts.

Your client is simply continuing his pattern of bullying, abuse, and oppression because I have no funds and no legal representation. He is not fooling the anyone.

Secondly, I have never agreed to the division of the Brooklyn flats as you set it out in the order. Who instructed you to do that? Do you have the tax impact for each one of us? The same goes for the houses in Wyoming. Why are you using a price which I told you during the trial is totally wrong? Where are the tax computations?

In fact, there is no evidence at all during the trial related to the division of assets, and the judgement omits my evidence regarding the taxes, pensions, and the balance sheet in general.

This is what I will be addressing in detail in my appeal to the Court of Appeal and this is the work I will be doing when I have money for food.

I cannot make any progress at present because I have no food, no accommodation, and no money for basic needs.

Until the respondent pays all the outstanding MPS payments (including rent) and complies with the MPS order, I am in a vulnerable situation and cannot have a fair trial.

This financial bullying must be addressed and until then, my rights for a fair trial must be protected.

Please can you now confirm if you are instructed by the respondent or if he is using other legal teams in the background.

I am copying Ms. Selby-King because I would like to inform the court on the record that I cannot have a fair trial under the current circumstances of economic abuse and bullying.

I do not agree with any order or submissions, and I cannot represent myself and defend my rights until I have food, accommodation, and money for my basic needs, and until the respondent stops this disgusting financial abuse and coercive control.

Sincerely,

Nadia

Dear Karen and Ms. Campbell,

Thank you for your email of 8:03pm tonight confirming that you “have now been instructed by Stowe to represent Mr. Zahmoul to draft the order for the judge. Ms Amaouche is instructed by Stowe to draft submissions in respect of costs”.

I am copying Karen in order to inform the judge that the respondent now has legal representation, and that I am hereby seeking equal footing.

The overarching duty of the Family Court is to ensure that the parties are on an equal footing and have equal access to legal representation.

I am without legal representation not by choice, but as a result of your client's misconduct, financial abuse, and his conniving tactics intended to starve me, and browbeat me into submission. I unable to agree any part of the order or prepare submissions for costs and anonymization because the respondent is in breach of the MPS order and because, unlike him, I do not have food, a roof over my head, and legal representation.

The bullying is tactical and obvious to all. A trial under duress, tyranny, and oppression might be possible in some countries, but not in the UK.

You mentioned in your email of 3:23pm today: “The judge has asked for this document to be sent to him on 3 May 2024. If, as I anticipate, we are unable to agree the document by 4pm on 3 May 2024, I will ask the judge for directions on how he would like any disputes to be resolved.”

This statement is wrong. As a direct result of your client's actions, I am not in a position to agree or disagree the document by 4pm on 3 May 2024, nor am I in a position to produce the accompanying supporting schedule of net effect. Unlike the respondent, I do not have food, and I do not have a legal team. As such, you will not be able to ask the judge for direction on how he would like any disputes to be resolved because there will be nothing to resolve until I have equal footing and legal representation. No document can be agreed or disagreed and there can be no fair judicial process until I have food, accommodation, money for the children and for my basic needs, and symmetrical legal advice.

I am unable to have equal footing and a fair judicial process until your client pays the full amount of outstanding MPS including the rent, which amounts to £51,524 (£18,762 per month for the months of April and May plus £7,000 per month for rent in February, March). The respondent must also pay for my legal costs so I can be on equal footing and instruct a legal team to represent me for the draft order, and the submissions for costs and anonymization.

Obviously, you and Crisp are only the outer layer of his legal representation, and behind you, like a Russian doll, there are several layers of legal teams and experts advising him and charging extraordinary amounts of money. Nonetheless, for the purposes of this judgement, I seek to have equal footing with his “visible” legal representation.

As such, I would be grateful if you could please send me all the itemized invoices for the legal costs incurred by the respondent for the months of February, March, April, and May 2024, including the amounts paid, the amounts outstanding and what is budgeted in May. I need this information for his solicitors as well as for 29BR. Please provide itemized invoices which show the number of hours you and Sassa-Ann spent or expect to spend on each task and your respective hourly fees. I need the same level of details for Crisp.

Please could you write to the judge and request an extension to ensure that your client and I are on equal footing in terms of legal representation and preparation time. Equal footing means the following minimum conditions must be met:

- a. I need to find a stable accommodation for the children and me.
- b. I need to eat and recover my strength. I am unwell, I have anemia, and have lost a lot of weight since the trial due to your client’s financial abuse.
- c. I need to identify a solicitor and barrister who are willing to take this case. There aren’t many.

Therefore, an extension of one week will not work. You and your team must first tell your client to pay the entire outstanding MPS amount and pay for equal legal representation. Then, and only then, can the court process resume in a manner which ensures a fair and equitable process, and equal footing.

This situation is entirely due to your client's misconduct, financial abuse, and conniving tactics intended to browbeat me into submission. His actions have resulted in court delays and more demands on His Lordship's time. I will not accept to be put at a disadvantage as a result of the respondent's underhanded litigation maneuvering.

With kind wishes,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I hope you are well.

Please would you forward this to the judge.

Please see attached a notice of acting on behalf of the respondent.

I am without funds for food, accommodation, basic needs, and without legal representation.

The overarching duty of the court is to ensure that the parties have equal footing and a fair and equitable trial.

I do not have equal footing, and I have requested that Ms. Campbell and her team do their duty as per the Bar Code of Conduct, BSB Handbook.

With kind wishes,

Dear Karen,

As per my earlier email, I have now made an application for enforcement of the MPS order.

I have tried to prepare the draft order and submissions for costs and anonymization, but I am not able to do them without legal assistance. It is too technical for me, and I will be at a significant disadvantage if I do them without legal representation.

I am also preparing the application to appeal against the judgement.

The respondent is represented by Ms. Campbell, and she has confirmed that she is preparing his submissions for costs and anonymization and representing his best interests in the draft order.

I am seeking equal footing and a fair proceeding. I have been unable to instruct a legal representative due to my lack of independent sources of funds.

The respondent's financial abuse and his non-compliance with the MPS order has caused me significant distress and harm. I am unwell, I lost a lot of weight, I am not sleeping, and I have anemia.

Could you please ask his Lordship to extend the time limit for submission of the draft order and submissions for costs and anonymization until the MPS order is enforced and until I have equal footing in legal representation.

It is impossible for me to prepare the submissions and the draft order without legal representation, and I seek to have equality and fairness in the judicial process with the respondent.

I would be grateful if you could please ask his Lordship for his guidance on how we should proceed in a way that ensures fairness and equal footing between the parties.

With kind wishes,

Nadia

You cannot do this.

I need help urgently.

I have nothing, no food, no home, and no legal assistance.

I cannot do this by myself, this is unfair, this cruel, this is inhumane.

I am at the end of my strength, and you are not allowed to do this to me and my children.

This is against every human right that I have. You are not allowed to take everything from me and silence me and oppress me.

This is a violation of everything I have, and you are abusing me and raping me because I have no power.

This is unbearable suffering. This is abuse. after 30 years of abuse, you are now abusing me on his behalf.

You cannot do this and take everything from me when I have no protection, no resources and I am at the lowest.

You are burning me alive on the stake.

Dear all,

I have contacted the Civil Legal Advice, FLOWS, EHRC, and Mind Legal. Unfortunately, the abuse has gone too far and the consequences are impeding my ability to cope by myself..

I am extremely distressed, I cannot cope anymore, I am being silenced and my rights have been stripped away from me with no explanation. I am being burnt alive on the stake with no trial.

The CLA is sending someone to be with me, they tried to help me with the case, and they provided names of solicitors who can assist with family proceedings, but they are concerned about my mental health and my safety. I cannot do this alone. I cannot do this without my rights. I have a right to protect myself and my children.

You are aware that my PTSD is triggered in situations where I am abused, cornered, powerless, silenced, unheard, and where my rights are not upheld.

I have a right to participate in the judicial process, I have a right to understand what the draft order is, and I have the right to have someone represent me. I have a right to understand what the submissions are, how to compute them and have someone do it on my behalf. I have a right to understand what a submission for anonymization is and I don't want the judgement to be anonymized and therefore I have a right to have a legal representative write the arguments to support my position. The respondent wants anonymization for obvious reasons. I don't want anonymization because the world needs to know that it is possible to stand up to tyranny, abuse, and oppression and my daughters want the judgement to be public because they know the truth and they are proud of me.

I feel powerless, abused, silenced, raped, and oppressed.

You have read my section 25 statement, and you have witnessed my evidence in cross examination.

You are aware that I suffer from severe PTSD, you are aware that I have been subjected to 30 years of domestic abuse and coercive control, and you are aware that I am vulnerable.

You are aware that the final hearing was a triumphant success and, after 30 years of oppression, it gave me my voice back. I was heard, I was seen, and I said my truth. It is all recorded and in transcripts. It is etched forever, and nothing can erase it.

You are aware that on an X-ray, the vocal cords and the female vagina look very similar. Both are used for raping a woman, subjugating her, and forcing upon her tyranny, power, and complete dominion.

Rape is what I feel in the deepest of my bones when my rights to speak my truth, defend myself, and have a fair process are denied.

I am being raped right now.

I informed you that I have no resources, no home, no food, and no legal assistance.

I informed you that my daughters and I are in danger because the respondent is involved with high-profile individuals who are known for carrying out extra-judicial assassinations.

You are aware that my daughter and I were followed in London on 24 March 2024 and that Cheltenham Ladies' College has put in place a security protocol for my daughter.

You are aware this the third such incident and all were reported to law enforcement.

You are aware of everything. I am being burnt alive, with no trial.

I am not naïve, and I am not asking for justice.

I want my rights to be upheld and I want a process that gives me equal probabilities of success as the opponent. Stripping me off my voice, food, a roof over my head, and legal advice is not a fair process and is not giving me equal probabilities of success. It is robbing me of my right to impact my life, it is rendering me powerless, and taking my ability to have agency and dominion over my life.

Whether the judgement is final or not, and regardless of my appeal, the draft order and the submissions for costs and anonymization are crucial. The court is proceeding with one party only. The other one is left behind, voiceless and powerless.

I cannot do this anymore. You all know that, and you are watching this happen, with no assistance to me and the children in circumstances where I have asked for help because of serious threats to our lives, and I have filed the necessary form to enforce the maintenance order.

You are just watching me go away, disappear, fade in the distance, until my voice becomes inaudible, and my spirit is crushed forever.

This is not right.

The usual course is for parties to exchange written documents simultaneously so that neither party has the advantage of "responding" to the other's points.

Dear Mrs Zahmoul,

As the applicant – your legal team would be expected to draft the order and ask Mr Zahmoul's legal team to approve or amend the document.

When an applicant is in person, the burden of drafting switches to the party represented.

The draft I have prepared is based upon a template which parties are required to use to ensure consistency.

A copy of the template I used is attached.

Ultimately, the order is made by the judge and he will make such rulings and corrections as he sees fit. He may ask the parties to give written submissions about any disputes or set another hearing date to decide after hearing submissions.

Yours sincerely,

Normally, if I had legal assistance, would we be submitting our own draft order, using yours, or using a template?

Who has the duty to create the original order, The applicant or the respondent?

Dear Mrs Zahmoul,
These are the documents that I will be submitting tomorrow.
I sent them to you on Tuesday.
Ms Amaouche is instructed by Stowe to make submissions on costs. She will send her document to the judge's clerk tomorrow (I do not know when but before 4pm) and she will let you know that she has done so.
The usual course is for parties to exchange written documents simultaneously so that neither party has the advantage of "responding" to the other's points.
I anticipate that Ms Amaouche will be in touch with you tomorrow to arrange exchange of documents.
I know she is currently engaged in a hearing but will see this message when she is finished.
Yours sincerely,
Alexis Campbell

Dear Karen,

Thank you very much. I would like to say that I am really sorry for what is going on and for the trouble it is causing you.

I am struggling so much, I am extremely distressed, and the feeling of powerlessness horrible: it's like watching myself being raped and not being able to do anything about it.

I am so sorry for the trouble. I am sorry from the bottom of my heart.

With my kind wishes,

Dear Ms. Campbell and Mr. Allen,

I am asking you to please confirm the position tonight. I need confirmation if your industry allows you to submit the draft order and other submissions under circumstances where I am at a huge disadvantage, which is caused and maintained by your client. This disadvantage, if not rectified, will have significant negative and harmful life-long consequences for the children and me.

Do the regulations and the Bar code allow you to advise, prepare, draft, and submit on behalf of one party a draft order for the final settlement, a net balancing schedule, a submission for costs, and a submission for anonymization, under circumstances where the other party wants to, but is prevented from, having the same level of legal representation, as a direct result of the financially well-off party's actions and non-compliance with maintenance payment orders?

Given your knowledge of this case, do the regulations and the Bar code allow you to submit the draft order and submissions for costs and anonymization on behalf of your client, under circumstances where the other party is not qualified to draft the order and submissions, cannot achieve his/her best interest, does not want to be a litigant in person, and is prevented from engaging in the proceedings as a direct result of your client's actions and breach of court orders?

Since 24th March 2024 I have documented step-by-step the incidents involving my children which represent a direct threat to our lives, the danger we are exposed to, and the impact it has on the children's lives and mine. I have spent two hours with the Principal of Cheltenham Ladies' College to discuss the matter and agree an enhanced safety plan for my younger daughter. I had a zoom meeting with the Dean of Wellesley College, and I presented the facts and discussed the impact on my older daughter who has autism and special needs.

I want legal counsel to advise me on everything because it is crucial for my daughters and for me, for our safety, our security, and our wellbeing.

I want legal representation for every single step, every single number, computation, and decision which will impact our future.

I want legal counsel to advise me, draft, review, and do what is in my best interest and what will ensure that the children and I are safe from harm and from danger.

The respondent has legal counsel and I seek the same.

I am forced into this position, and I oppose it. This is not my choice, this is not my decision, this is dangerous for my daughters and for me.

Will you please confirm now if the regulations and the Bar code allow you to submit the draft order and submissions under circumstances where I am prevented from having the same.

I need complete transparency on this matter, and confirmation by return email.

I need an answer tonight because, as you can imagine, I will take action with whatever remaining options I have at that point.

Sincerely,

Nadia

Dear Ms Zahmoul,

Please see below reply from His Lordship:

It is not appropriate for any litigant to communicate with the Judge or the judge's Clerk in these terms. Communications of this nature are entirely inappropriate and must now cease.

The court has concluded the final hearing in this case and has delivered judgment following that final hearing setting out the division of the matrimonial assets it considers fair in this case, together with its detailed reasons for reaching that decision.

The judgment awards the wife 52% of the matrimonial assets, to the value of some £6.2M. The sooner the parties can agree, or the court can make, a final order embodying its decision the sooner the wife can begin to benefit from the £6.2M in matrimonial assets the court has distributed to her.

In so far as the wife disputes the decision of the court made at the conclusion of the final hearing, the wife retains the right to apply for permission to appeal the decision of the court to the Court of Appeal. Once again, the sooner the parties can agree, or the court can make, the final order embodying its decision the sooner any application to the Court of Appeal for permission to appeal can move forward.

Many thanks

Subject: Legal Representation and equal footing.

Dear Karen,

As per my earlier email, I have now made an application for enforcement of the MPS order.

I have tried to prepare the draft order and submissions for costs and anonymization, but I am not able to do them without legal assistance. It is too technical for me, and I will be at a significant disadvantage if I do them without legal representation.

I am also preparing the application to appeal against the judgement.

The respondent is represented by Ms. Campbell, and she has confirmed that she is preparing his submissions for costs and anonymization and representing his best interests in the draft order.

I am seeking equal footing and a fair proceeding. I have been unable to instruct a legal representative due to my lack of independent sources of funds.

The respondent's financial abuse and his non-compliance with the MPS order has caused me significant distress and harm. I am unwell, I lost a lot of weight, I am not sleeping, and I have anemia.

Could you please ask his Lordship to extend the time limit for submission of the draft order and submissions for costs and anonymization until the MPS order is enforced and until I have equal footing in legal representation.

It is impossible for me to prepare the submissions and the draft order without legal representation, and I seek to have equality and fairness in the judicial process with the respondent.

I would be grateful if you could please ask his Lordship for his guidance on how we should proceed in a way that ensures fairness and equal footing between the parties.

With kind wishes,

Nadia

Dear Karen,

The respondent is not allowed to make any submissions for costs, anonymization, and draft order until I have equal footing to do the same.

If the court does not want me to have equal footing and legal representation, the court must set out the reasons why it is infringing my rights and limiting them and its reasons why the respondent is permitted to have a significant advantage over me.

The issue here is not the court's decision in dividing the assets, the issue is why does the court feel it not acceptable for me to have equal footing.

I am seeking equal footing and legal representation in the matter of the draft order and submissions.

If the court opposes equal footing and equal participation in the proceedings for both parties, the court must set out its reasons for this decision. They are not to be confused with the reasons for its division of assets. That is not what I am seeking here. I am seeking my human rights to a fair trial, equal footing, equal participation in the legal proceedings. It is wrong to say that I am seeking to oppose the division of assets, these are two completely separate issues. One is of equal footing and the other is for the appeal. I do not understand why the two matters are being intertwined. They are distinct. Please may I have equal footing and legal representation in the proceedings and if not, then why?

Respectfully,

Nadia Zahmoul

Please could you ask his Lordship to enforce this order, I need food and accommodation urgently. I need to eat; I am hungry and I have anemia.

If he cannot, please could you ask him to set out his reasons and what my options are. I don't have legal representation; therefore, my options are very limited.

With kind wishes,

Dear Karen,

Please find attached:

1. My draft order in word;
2. My excel schedule confirming the figures and net effect; and
3. A PDF including
 - Ms Amaouche's submissions in respect of costs;
 - The proposed anonymisations to the judgment; and
 - Mr Zahmoul's note (prepared when he was in person) making submissions in respect of anonymisation.

Mr Zahmoul has instructed Stowe Family Law on a limited and defined basis; to instruct Ms Amaouche to draft the costs submissions and to instruct me to review those cost submissions and draft the proposed final order arising out of his Lordship's judgment.

I would be very grateful if you would forward these documents to the judge. I have copied in Mrs Zahmoul.

Separately, my client noticed an error in the judgment, which he has asked me to bring to the judge's attention. At paragraph 21, his Lordship referred to a previous order made on 16 November 2023. That order relates to a hearing on 1 November 2023, with judgment from that hearing handed down on 28 November 2023 and the order approved on 11 December 2023. There was no order made on 16 November 2023.

I hope you have a lovely weekend,

Dear Ms. Campbell and Mr. Allen,

For the avoidance of doubt, if you submit anything of behalf of the respondent under circumstances where the court does not set out its reasons for not allowing me to have equal footing and legal representation, this will be an infringement of my human rights, the right for a fair trial.

If you choose to submit the draft order and the submissions on behalf of the respondent, you must:

- a) copy me in all submissions to the court, and
- b) set out in writing that you are aware that I do not have equal footing and you are aware that I seek to have equal footing and it is not my decision to be a litigant in person, and
- c) that you are aware that I made an application to enforce the MPS order to have food, accommodation, and basic needs.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I am not asking the court to arrange my legal representation.

“The Ministry of Justice defines the overriding objective of the court in Part 1, 1.12 (a) as ensuring that the parties are on an equal footing and can participate fully in proceedings, and that parties and witnesses can give their best evidence.”

I am asking the court to “ensure that the parties are on equal footing” and I submitted an application to enforce the MPS order.

I seek equal footing and I respectfully ask the court to enforce the MPS order so I can use the funds to eat and arrange legal representation.

The court has the means to enforce the MPS order. The respondent is in non-compliance, and I set out the sums in arrears and outstanding.

If the court’s overriding objective is to ensure equal footing, enforcing the MPS order would help me have money for food and accommodation and arranging legal representation.

If the court does not enforce the MPS order, it is allowing the situation of unequal footing to persist. I seek to understand the reasons why the court allows the situation of inequity, inequality, and unfairness to persist in circumstances where the court has the means to enforce and obtain equal footing.

I seek to understand the reasons why the court is not using the means by which it can ensure equal footing , and I seek an appropriate extension until the court is satisfied that I have equal footing.

Respectfully,
Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Justice MacDonald, dear Mr. Chalk, Secretary of State for Justice, and Lord Chancellor.

I am writing as a lay person, and I mean no disrespect to your respective offices.

I understand the separation between the courts and the Ministry of Justice, but in circumstances where there is no mechanism in place to allow me to uphold my human rights and have equal footing in these proceedings, I am looking to both your offices for guidance and the application of justice.

The two fundamental questions I am asking are as follows:

1. Why is the court knowingly keeping me in a position which is unequal, unfair, and unjust relative to the respondent's position, in circumstances where the court has the power to enforce the mechanism by which I can have equity, a fair proceeding, equal footing, and equal participation in the proceedings?
2. If the court makes the decision that it will not use its power to enforce the MPS order, I seek to understand the reasons for that decision, for it is exactly the court's non-enforcement of the maintenance order which has helped the respondent gain and maintain unequal footing in the proceedings and an unfair advantage over me. That advantage is twofold: legal representation, as well as access to food, accommodation, and basic needs. I have neither.

The Ministry of Justice defines the overriding objective of the court in Part 1, 1.12 (a) as ensuring that the parties are on an equal footing and can participate fully in proceedings, and that parties and witnesses can give their best evidence.

The respondent is represented by Ms. Campbell KC in this matter, and she submitted on his behalf the attached documents as detailed below:

1. "Mydraft order in word;
2. My excel schedule confirming the figures and net effect; and
3. A PDF including
 - Ms Amaouche's submissions in respect of costs;
 - The proposed anonymisations to the judgment; and
 - Mr Zahmoul' s note (prepared when he was in person) making submissions in respect of anonymisation.

The respondent is in breach of the Maintenance Pending Suit order made by Justice MacDonald on 5 July 2023. I submitted an application on Form D50K to his Lordship to enforce the maintenance order, resume the monthly maintenance payments, and order the respondent to make payment of sums in arrear totaling of £51,524. The MPS order and the application to enforce are attached.

I have tried to prepare the above submissions by myself, but as you can see from the attached documents, these are complex legal matters which require legal assistance and legal representation.

I am seeking equal footing and a fair trial. I am seeking to participate in these proceedings on equal terms as the respondent, and to provide my own submissions, with the benefit of legal advice and legal representation. I am seeking to have the same legal rights as the respondent and the same opportunities to represent my best interest in the matter of these submissions, which were due today by 4pm.

I am not asking the court to arrange my legal assistance. I can arrange my own legal representation once the court ensures the two parties have equal footing.

I am asking for my human right to a fair trial. The court has the means to enforce the maintenance order. If the court enforces the order, I would be able to have food, accommodation, and arrange my own legal representation.

If the court does not use its enforcing powers, it will de facto allow these proceedings to continue without my participation and it will knowingly keep me in a position which is unequal, unfair, and unjust relative to the respondent's position.

The MPS order made by His Lordship is valid until the complete end of the proceedings. I seek to understand why I am kept in an unequal financial footing in circumstances where the court can establish equity and can allow me to arrange my own legal representation.

The court has a duty to ensure equal footing and I am asking why it is not doing its duty. I seek to know the reasons why the court is not enforcing the MPS order, which in itself would be sufficient to allow me to exercise my legal rights and enforce my human rights. The deadline for submissions was 4pm today and as result, I have been denied the ability to participate in the legal proceedings and represent my interests. I am not a litigant in person by choice.

I am writing this with humility, and with the utmost respect for the court, the Ministry of Justice, and the democratic institutions of this country.

I am a lay person and I seek to understand what the meaning of Justice is and uphold my human rights.

With all my respect to your respective offices.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Karen,

I have not been able to meet the deadline despite all my efforts.

The submission made to the court today by Ms. Campbell is a unilateral representation of the respondent's position.

My submissions and my draft order are not ready, and I respectfully request an extension in order to prepare my draft order and my submissions with the benefit of legal assistance.

I am respectfully requesting that his Lordship enforces the maintenance order so I can arrange for food, accommodation, and legal representation.

His Lordship has the power to enforce the MPS, which is valid until the end of the proceedings.

As soon as the respondent makes the payments, I will be able to eat, arrange an accommodation, and instruct legal representation.

I will be able to achieve equal footing and participate in these proceedings in a manner which is fair and dignified.

Below is a summary of my position as it stands:

1. I have not been able to submit my documents by 4pm today because I do not have the legal expertise to draft them by myself.
2. It is not my choice to be a litigant in person. It is forced upon me.
3. The court has a duty to ensure that parties have equal footing and equal participation in the proceedings.
4. The court can fulfill its duty by enforcing the MPS order. I submitted the application on form D50K.
5. Enforcement of the MPS order would give me the means by which to arrange my own legal representation, food, and accommodation.
6. Failure of the court to enforce the MPS order keeps me in a position of unfairness, inequality, and injustice.
7. If the court decides to not enforce the MPS order it is doing so with the full knowledge that the court is de facto enabling the respondent to achieve and maintain a significant and unfair advantage over me.
8. If the court makes that decision it will lead to a judicial mistake, and I will have an unfair proceeding.

Sincerely,

Dear Karen,

The draft order submitted today was made by one party only. I have not been able to submit my own.

I wish to have confirmation that I can submit my draft order and submissions as soon as I have legal representation and that I will arrange legal representation by myself when I have funds.

Please can you ask the judge to confirm.

With kind wishes,

Dear Ms. Campbell and Mr. Allen,

I do not know the law, I do not have legal representation, and I know you cannot advise me.

I completely oppose the unilateral proceedings, and the fact that I am not allowed to have a fair proceeding.

I seek to submit my own draft order and my own submissions.

On that basis, and on the assumption that you and the judge will not provide any clarity or transparency on the process, I will consider all the options available to me to uphold my rights.

Dear Karen,

I am forwarding the application to enforce the MPS order. Please could you pass this on to the judge.

I rely on the maintenance payments for food, accommodation and to arrange legal assistance for the ongoing matters.

I will be able to submit my own draft order and submissions as soon as the MPS payments resume.

Without funds, I am not able to submit the draft order and the submissions, and this is why I was not able to submit by 4pm today.

I seek to reiterate that I would like to file my own draft order and my own submissions, but I am unable to do so because I am not qualified, and I do not have legal representation. I am asking his Lordship to enforce the MPS order so I can arrange my legal representation and arrange food, accommodation, and basic necessities.

Therefore, please could his Lordship extend my time limit to submit until the MPS payments resume.

I would be grateful for your urgent assistance with this matter and your reply.

With kind wishes,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I am sorry for following up on this, it is extremely important that I know the court's position on the matter of the non-compliance with the MPS order.

I have explained that I am not seeking the court to arrange my legal representation. I have explained that I can arrange my own legal representation, my food, my accommodation, and my basic needs for the children and for myself if the respondent fulfils his obligation to make the maintenance payments as per his Lordship's MPS order of 5th July 2023. I have filed an enforcement application and I have informed the court of the respondent's breach of the MPS order on numerous occasions.

I cannot be held responsible for not submitting the draft order and submissions by 4pm today under the current circumstances.

I seek a reason for the court's decision to not enforce the MPS order.

Please could you ask his Lordship to provide a reason for not enforcing the MPS order. This is at the core of my situation, and I urgently need a response and a reason for the court's position in order to consider my position and my rights.

With kind wishes,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

The legal proceedings cannot continue until the court provides a reason for the non-enforcement of the MPS order and until I have equal footing.

I seek to stay the proceedings until this is done.

Please would you let me know if there is a specific form for this request.

I am simply asking to stay the proceedings until the respondent is ordered to comply with the MPS order made by his Lordship. I am unable to participate in the proceedings in a manner that is fair and equal until the court enforces the MPS order. Therefore, I am requesting that the proceedings be stayed until the court enforces the MPS order so I can have equal footing in my participation.

Please may I have transparency on this matter.

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court’s need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs an anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent’s representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person.”

Dear Clive,

Thank you for your email.

Please would you pass this on.

I am not qualified to do the draft and submissions by myself.

The MPS is essential for food, accommodation and to pay my basic needs.

The MPS is very much related to my ability to engage in the judiciary process. I am not holding up the process, the court is.

The respondent has not paid the maintenance since March 2024, I have no food, no accommodation, and no funds for basic needs.

I am being coerced to engage in a complex and without my human rights to live, to have a fair trial and to be on equal footing.

I cannot draft the order and do the submission without food, accommodation, and necessities. And I cannot do them without the same level of legal assistance the respondent had.

I don't have money to pay the court fees. The respondent is in arrears of 351,560.

This is inhumane. I am hungry, I have no place to stay, I cannot pay for my children's tutors, and you are asking me to pay the court fees and draft the court documents, draft order, and submissions by myself? Without food, without a home, and in a situation of extreme financial and economic abuse caused by the respondent and maintained by the court?

What is the court waiting for? A hospital notice? A doctor's notice? Who can live without food? Without a home?

How can you ask me to do the draft in such circumstances.

I hope you realize what you have written in this email.

It is completely inhumane and unacceptable. You have been threatened, we have been followed, I am putting in place safety protocols with my daughters' schools, I am meeting with law enforcement and discussing enhanced safety briefs for the children, the respondent is under criminal investigations for money laundering of prostitution proceeds, the respondent has committed LLC fraud in Wyoming, the respondent has a huge risk of criminal asset forfeiture and you are asking me to do the draft order and the submissions for costs based on what? Every single number is wrong. The real estate valuations are lower than their market valuations in order to artificially underestimate the transfer tax and deferred CGT I will have to pay because I am a US citizen, and he is not.

The asset schedule is completely wrong. He wants to buy the watches I had to pawn for money, and he cannot pay the MPS?

It is coercive and it is meant to prevent me from engaging in the proceedings on an equal footing. What is stopping him from paying the maintenance?

Nothing. He is strangulating me and using his control of money to get what he wants by abuse, power, and financial cruelty.

And you are asking me to pay the court fee? You are telling me that the MPS is independent of the draft order and submissions? You are stating that the respondent can have all the legal representation he wishes but not me because that's the way it is? Or because I didn't pay the court fee?

In divorce proceedings where every single asset and line item in the balance sheet is a fraud, you are expecting me to represent myself at this critical stage, in circumstances where the history of this 30-year marriage is well documented for the domestic abuse, gaslighting, coercive control, and mental cruelty? I have severe PTSD, the Part 25 statement is available, the court transcripts are available, and the judge has witnessed 10 days of how severe my trauma symptoms are and how debilitating they are. Ms Campbell was there.

And you are telling me to get on with it?

I hope you realize what you have written.

I am seeking an explanation and I am seeking enforcement of the MPS because my daughters and I have a human right to life.

I am seeking equal footing because the draft order and submissions are complex and I do not want a judicial process which is in line with the Bangalore Principles of Judicial Conduct, ensuring:

1. Judicial independence
2. Impartiality
3. Integrity
4. Propriety and the appearance of propriety
5. Equality of treatment to all before the courts
6. Competence and diligence

I oppose any deviation from the above principles, in particular the first three.

The respondent is holding me and the children at ransom, withholding the money for our food, accommodation, and basic human needs in order to force me into submission, subjugation, and get his way. This is abuse of the highest degree and it is impacting the children as well.

Are you waiting for all three of us to collapse? What is the end game? At which point do you stop this and order him to comply with a court order instead of deflecting on me and asking me to pay the court fees?

The court is enabling the respondent carry out his abuse of me and the children.

There is no other angle.

I will look for a solution which is human, dignified, and which is genuinely concerned with my children's wellbeing.

This is wrong, and no one will tell me that this is normal. It is not.

Thank you.

Yours is an email my daughters and I dissect and analyze the ethical underpinnings of your text for many years to come.

Dear Karen,

Re: Zahmoul

Please find attached for his Lordship's consideration on behalf of the respondent husband:

1. Slightly amended DRAFT ORDER;
2. A pension sharing annex;
3. Net effect schedule to explain the pension sharing figures; and
4. A note from Mr Zahmoul with regard to his watches.

Draft Order:

We have not had any substantive response to our draft order from Mrs Zahmoul.

In the interim, Mr Zahmoul has asked for the following amendments (deletions marked as ~~striketrough~~ or added in red, bold underlined) to be incorporated into your final draft:

- a. Para 8 c – contains corrections for the names of the pension in Malta;
- b. Para 10 gives clearer definition of the sums to be shared;
- c. Para 30 – contains corrections for the account into which payment will be made for the benefit of the applicant;
- d. Para 35 – the US pensions are not capable of being shared pursuant to an English pension sharing order.
 - (i) Mr Zahmoul is committed to implementing the terms of the judgment. I have therefore left in the provision – that he shall share the pensions, but removed the provision that it shall be by way of pension sharing order and added the record that this is being done outside of a formal pension sharing order. He will transfer 100% of his Fidelity pension to Mrs Zahmoul.
 - (ii) In drafting I had assumed (wrongly) that there were sufficient funds in his Fidelity Brokerage scheme to fund the entire US pension share. There are not. There is a shortfall of £23,611. It is necessary to transfer funds from another of the respondent's pension schemes. He cannot transfer funds from his Goldman Sachs schemes and so the shortfall of £23,611 is to be drawn from the Malta pension (1%) – and my amendments record that fact (including sharing from funds (a) and (b)). Separately he will transfer 22.64% of the Malta pension to give equality. (That together with 1% to cover the shortfall of the US pension requires a total of 23.64% of the Malta pension to Mrs Zahmoul).

- e. Para 36 contains corrections to the scheme name, as in para 8c above;
- f. Para 38 provides for the respondent to manage the education fund without the applicant in circumstances where Mrs Zahmoul has made it clear that she will not engage in any correspondence from him, which she says she considers to be coercive and controlling.
- g. Para 43 – has been deleted. The respondent is concerned that the applicant will be able to prevent or block the pension arrangements to prevent the respondent from obtaining a decree. She has not responded to any of his efforts today to implement the terms of the judge's order.

Pawned watches

Mr Zahmoul has asked the judge to read the attached note in respect of his watch collection.

Correction

Separately, Mr Zahmoul has noticed the following mistake in the judgment:

At paragraph 34, line 7 the judgment refers to interim periodical payments of "£2,000 per month," but should read "£2,000 per week."

Thank you very much for your help.

Best wishes,

Alexis

Subject: MPS Order

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court’s need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs an anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent’s representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person.”

Dear Judge,

I am writing to set out my position and inform the court how I intend to proceed.

I don't mean any disrespect, but it is obvious to anyone with knowledge of the case and the trial that the judgement is deeply disturbing and wrong.

I do not have a shred of doubt that the final judgement is the result of unethical, amoral, and corrupt conduct.

I seek to undo what was done because this has never been about money and has always been about not willing to surrender to abuse.

I have been unwell since the judgement was made; I cannot describe the suffering it causes me. My PTSD symptoms are debilitating and interfere with everything I do.

Given my position that the judgement is fraudulent, in its entirety, I am of course completely opposed to all orders, submissions, costs etc. and will provide my own.

I have been under the continuous care of Prof. Libby, consultant psychiatrist, and I will ask him to write a report to the court explaining how much I am currently struggling.

I would like to enforce the MPS immediately.

I will seek a judicial review and will seek to rely on the Human Rights Act.

Sincerely,

Nadia

Dear Kelly,

I am without Legal representation.

I seek equal footing.

I seek to enforce the MPS, and I seek to send my own draft order and submissions.

I seek to appeal the judgement and I seek a judicial review.

I don't have funds for food and accommodation.

This judgement is wrong.

I have been asking for MPS since March.

I don't want the money from the judgement, I would like money from the MPS so I can have a fair trial, food, and accommodation.

This judgement is unfair, and I have the right for a fair trial.

I have not been given my rights.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Ms. Campbell,

Thank you for your email below.

This is indeed the process if we were in an autocratic government.

The hallmark of a democracy is our right to appeal a judgement and to uphold our human rights.

I am now on my third day of hunger, not by choice, but because Justice MacDonald refuses to enforce the maintenance order. The respondent has been in breach of the judge's order since March and the judge refuses to enforce the order for maintenance. As a result, the children and I have no money for food, accommodation, and basic needs.

I intend to appeal the judgement in its entirety. However, I am losing my strength and am on my third day of hunger as a result of the judge's refusal to enforcement the order for maintenance pending suit.

I cannot appeal without food, accommodation, and my basic human rights.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul

Subject: BV20D01752 - Unequal Footing and Unequal Participation in Proceedings

Dear Justice MacDonald, dear Mr. Chalk, Secretary of State for Justice, and Lord Chancellor.

I am writing as a lay person, and I mean no disrespect to your respective offices.

I understand the separation between the courts and the Ministry of Justice, but in circumstances where there is no mechanism in place to allow me to uphold my human rights and have equal footing in these proceedings, I am looking to both your offices for guidance and the application of justice.

The two fundamental questions I am asking are as follows:

1. Why is the court knowingly keeping me in a position which is unequal, unfair, and unjust relative to the respondent's position, in circumstances where the court has the power to enforce the mechanism by which I can have equity, a fair proceeding, equal footing, and equal participation in the proceedings?
2. If the court makes the decision that it will not use its power to enforce the MPS order, I seek to understand the reasons for that decision, for it is exactly the court's non-enforcement of the maintenance order which has helped the respondent gain and maintain unequal footing in the proceedings and an unfair advantage over me. That advantage is twofold: legal representation, as well as access to food, accommodation, and basic needs. I have neither.

The Ministry of Justice defines the overriding objective of the court in Part 1, 1.12 (a) as ensuring that the parties are on an equal footing and can participate fully in proceedings, and that parties and witnesses can give their best evidence.

The respondent is represented by Ms. Campbell KC in this matter, and she submitted on his behalf the attached documents as detailed below:

1. "Mydraft order in word;
2. My excel schedule confirming the figures and net effect; and
3. A PDF including
 - Ms Amaouche's submissions in respect of costs;

- The proposed anonymisations to the judgment; and
- Mr Zahmoul' s note (prepared when he was in person) making submissions in respect of anonymisation.

The respondent is in breach of the Maintenance Pending Suit order made by Justice MacDonald on 5 July 2023. I submitted an application on Form D50K to his Lordship to enforce the maintenance order, resume the monthly maintenance payments, and order the respondent to make payment of sums in arrear totaling of £51,524. The MPS order and the application to enforce are attached.

I have tried to prepare the above submissions by myself, but as you can see from the attached documents, these are complex legal matters which require legal assistance and legal representation.

I am seeking equal footing and a fair trial. I am seeking to participate in these proceedings on equal terms as the respondent, and to provide my own submissions, with the benefit of legal advice and legal representation. I am seeking to have the same legal rights as the respondent and the same opportunities to represent my best interest in the matter of these submissions, which were due today by 4pm.

I am not asking the court to arrange my legal assistance. I can arrange my own legal representation once the court ensures the two parties have equal footing.

I am asking for my human right to a fair trial. The court has the means to enforce the maintenance order. If the court enforces the order, I would be able to have food, accommodation, and arrange my own legal representation.

If the court does not use its enforcing powers, it will de facto allow these proceedings to continue without my participation and it will knowingly keep me in a position which is unequal, unfair, and unjust relative to the respondent's position.

The MPS order made by His Lordship is valid until the complete end of the proceedings. I seek to understand why I am kept in an unequal financial footing in circumstances where the court can establish equity and can allow me to arrange my own legal representation.

The court has a duty to ensure equal footing and I am asking why it is not doing its duty. I seek to know the reasons why the court is not enforcing the MPS order, which in itself would be sufficient to allow me to exercise my legal rights and enforce my human rights. The deadline for submissions was 4pm today and as result, I have been denied the ability to participate in the legal proceedings and represent my interests. I am not a litigant in person by choice.

I am writing this with humility, and with the utmost respect for the court, the Ministry of Justice, and the democratic institutions of this country.

I am a lay person and I seek to understand what the meaning of Justice is and uphold my human rights.

With all my respect to your respective offices.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Subject: DRAFT FINAL ORDER - ZAHMOUL

Dear Karen,

Re: Zahmoul

Please find attached for his Lordship's consideration on behalf of the respondent husband:

1. Slightly amended DRAFT ORDER;
2. A pension sharing annex;
3. Net effect schedule to explain the pension sharing figures; and
4. A note from Mr Zahmoul with regard to his watches.

Draft Order:

We have not had any substantive response to our draft order from Mrs Zahmoul.

In the interim, Mr Zahmoul has asked for the following amendments (deletions marked as ~~striketrough~~ or added in red, bold underlined) to be incorporated into your final draft:

- a. Para 8 c – contains corrections for the names of the pension in Malta;
- b. Para 10 gives clearer definition of the sums to be shared;
- c. Para 30 – contains corrections for the account into which payment will be made for the benefit of the applicant;
- d. Para 35 – the US pensions are not capable of being shared pursuant to an English pension sharing order.
 - (i) Mr Zahmoul is committed to implementing the terms of the judgment. I have therefore left in the provision – that he shall share the pensions, but removed the provision that it shall be by way of pension sharing order and added the record that this is being done outside of a formal pension sharing order. He will transfer 100% of his Fidelity pension to Mrs Zahmoul.
 - (ii) In drafting I had assumed (wrongly) that there were sufficient funds in his Fidelity Brokerage scheme to fund the entire US pension share. There are not. There is a shortfall of £23,611. It is necessary to transfer funds from another of the respondent's pension schemes. He cannot transfer funds from his Goldman Sachs schemes and so the shortfall of £23,611 is to be drawn from the Malta pension (1%) – and my amendments record that fact (including sharing from funds (a) and (b)). Separately he will transfer 22.64% of the Malta pension to give equality. (That together with 1% to cover the shortfall of the US pension requires a total of 23.64% of the Malta pension to Mrs Zahmoul).
- e. Para 36 contains corrections to the scheme name, as in para 8c above;
- f. Para 38 provides for the respondent to manage the education fund without the applicant in circumstances where Mrs Zahmoul has made it clear that she will not engage in any correspondence from him, which she says she considers to be coercive and controlling.
- g. Para 43 – has been deleted. The respondent is concerned that the applicant will be able to prevent or block the pension arrangements to prevent the respondent from obtaining a decree. She has not responded to any of his efforts today to implement the terms of the judge's order.

Pawned watches

Mr Zahmoul has asked the judge to read the attached note in respect of his watch collection.

Correction

Separately, Mr Zahmoul has noticed the following mistake in the judgment:

At paragraph 34, line 7 the judgment refers to interim periodical payments of "£2,000 per month," but should read "£2,000 per week."

Thank you very much for your help.
Best wishes,
Alexis

Subject: MPS Order

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court’s need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs an anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent's representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person.”

Kind regards,

Clive Higgleton

Dear Sir Jonathan Cohen, Justice MacDonald, and Justice Francis,

1. The Biden administration established the US fight against corruption as a “core national security interest” and defined “weaponized corruption” as corruption which is used purposefully as a tool to interfere with, co-opt, weaken, and destabilize democratic institutions and processes. This is not an individual matter. This is a matter of public and national security interest.
2. Mr. Kenes Rakishev is an agent of destabilization, well-known to the UK and US authorities, who uses his immense power and influence to advance the ideological and financial interests of Putin and the ruling kleptocrat elite of ex-Soviet Union authoritarian regimes.
3. The judgement handed down in Zahmoul v. Zahmoul on 18 April 2024 is “Reputation Laundering” which completely absolves Mr. Zahmoul of all past wrong doings, omits and denies all evidence of criminal activities, and cleanses his reputation using the solemn and authoritative judicial powers of the UK courts.
4. The respondent’s “reputation laundering” is an essential and necessary investment in order to protect the financial interests of the Russian and Kazakh oligarchs Kenes Rakishev represents. For those of you who are investigative journalists, a partial explanation for the reasons why Renes Rakishev must cleanse Mr. Zahmoul’s reputation can be found in the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings which are available directly from the SEC’s website below. I will email separately a note explaining that Kenes Rakishev is in breach with the SEC regulations and NASDAQ requirements. This “reputation laundering” is crucial to ensure compliance with SEC regulations.

5. The judgement of 18 April 2024 is a fraud intended to protect and promote the Kazakh and Russian financial interests and erode the democratic processes. The court order and the costs are a fraud. I am in the process of appealing the judgement in its entirety and I can support every allegation I make with irrefutable evidence.
6. There is no “judgement” acceptable by any legal principles and consistent with the evidence and the records of the final hearing. There is no court order until I have equal footing.
7. Enforcement of the MPS Order. Justice MacDonald is enabling the respondent to exert coercive financial control and abuse, which is exactly what the respondent is doing in his email below, even falsely representing that he has the judiciary powers to do so. The respondent is in violation of the MPS order since February 2024. An application to enforce the MPS order was submitted on 2 May 2024 to Justice MacDonald and the court fees were duly paid. Justice MacDonald has not taken steps to enforce the MPS despite knowing that we are in financial hardship since February 2024. I demand to know why Justice MacDonald is not enforcing the MPS order?
8. Equal footing in Judicial Proceedings. I demand equal footings, and my rights to engage in the judicial proceedings. I demand my human rights under articles 2 and 6. Only by enforcement of the MPS order can this court afford me equal footing in circumstances where I have no food, no accommodation, no money for basic needs, and no legal representation since February 2024. This court is not enforcing the maintenance order and is enabling the respondent to exert financial control and abuse. This is abusive and coercive.
9. The court is not allowed to exclude me from the proceedings by keeping me hungry, homeless, and without legal advice. The court has the means to ensure equal footing but is not exercising its powers. The court cannot impose a fake judgement and carry on the judiciary process while intentionally keeping me outside the proceedings by not enforcing the MPS order. The court is abusing me. Please read Justice MacDonald’s emails in pages 11, 15, and 16 in exhibit 7 attached. The judge is using the powers of his office to bully me, abuse me, and keep me excluded from the proceedings. Justice MacDonald is suggesting that I should use the proceeds from the divorce settlement to establish, retrospectively, equal footing. This is unacceptable. I demand equal footing immediately, and I demand enforcement of the MPS order. I cannot participate in my proceedings without food, accommodation, and money for my basic needs. Not by imposing a fraudulent judgement and order. I demand my rights now, because I want to participate in my legal proceedings.
10. Domestic abuse_was abundantly well established during the final hearing. Ms.

Campbell, could you please ask your client to stop contacting me and to never contact me again. Since inception, these proceedings relied on domestic abuse as a fundamental reason for the divorce. My solicitors wrote several letters to this effect and submitted doctor reports regarding the negative impact on my health of domestic abuse, manipulation, gaslighting, and coercive control. My section 25 statement exposes painful and intimate aspects of the respondent's cruel abuse and coercive control since the start of the marriage in 1995. My counsel's statements and oral submissions during the trial exposed clear evidence of domestic abuse. In cross-examination, the respondent did not have any intelligent reply to my counsel's questions about his malicious intent, abuse, and cruelty. It was established in the respondent's own words that he is determined to abuse me and is acting maliciously. However, as the judgment is corrupted, the domestic abuse was not reflected in the "judgement". I am hereby requesting that you ask the respondent to stop contacting me and the children effective immediately. I will apply for non-molestation to this court and will copy everyone.

11. Ongoing Criminal Investigations. The respondent is under ongoing criminal investigation in the US. The crypto expert Marlon Pinto submitted all the evidence to Justice MacDonald. The judge falsely stated in the judgement that I did not provide evidence of criminal investigations. I did and I will provide it again. Justice MacDonald has chosen to omit the evidence and cleanse the reputation of the respondent. He has all the evidence. He has the contact information of the IRS Criminal Investigations Cyber Unit. I also confirmed these details in my oral evidence, in cross examination, as per the attached transcripts. I specifically informed Justice MacDonald that it was the IRS:CI Cyber Unit in New York which was in charge with the investigation into the respondent's criminal activities, focusing primarily on money laundering of prostitution proceeds using cryptocurrency. I will send the evidence in a separate email and copy everyone.
12. Mr. Brooks KC, who are you? Could you please reply to this email and confirm the following:
 - The name of the solicitors and the solicitors' firm who instructed you.
 - Dates and scope of your instruction.
 - Invoices showing itemized services, amounts invoiced, works in progress, and amounts paid.

Sincerely,

Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Karen,

Please pass this on to Justice MacDonald.

Dear judge,

I have not been able to participate in the proceedings due to your non enforcement of the MPS since March 2024. I have been without food, accommodation, and without money for basic needs since March 2024.

I have not had legal representation since 8 March 2024.

I was not able to review the judgement and unlike the respondent, I was not legally represented to review the draft order, the submissions for costs and submissions for anonymization.

I am applying for a judicial review and I am appealing the judgement in its entirety.

I oppose the anonymization of the judgement which serves to hide the true identity of those this judgement benefits: Kenes Rakishev and the Kazakh oligarchs.

I oppose the cost orders, the draft order, and I oppose the judgement in its entirety. It is plainly wrong, and it is obviously partial and exposes corruption on a grand scale.

I was excluded from these proceedings purposely and your non-enforcement of the maintenance order is the main tool you used to starve me off funds, violate my human rights, and force me out of my proceedings.

Are you trying to burry this ahead of the Bank holiday weekend because this judgement is corrupted and because it serves the financial interests of Kenes Rakishev with one hand, while the government imposes sanctions with the other hand?

I will appeal immediately and will expose the full extent of the Kazakh's corruption of our judiciary system and our democratic processes, one paragraph at a time, all 111 of them.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul

Subject: DRAFT FINAL ORDER - ZAHMOUL

Dear Karen,

Re: Zahmoul

Please find attached for his Lordship's consideration on behalf of the respondent husband:

1. Slightly amended DRAFT ORDER;
2. A pension sharing annex;
3. Net effect schedule to explain the pension sharing figures; and
4. A note from Mr Zahmoul with regard to his watches.

Draft Order:

We have not had any substantive response to our draft order from Mrs Zahmoul.

In the interim, Mr Zahmoul has asked for the following amendments (deletions marked as ~~striketrough~~ or added in red, bold underlined) to be incorporated into your final draft:

- a. Para 8 c – contains corrections for the names of the pension in Malta;
- b. Para 10 gives clearer definition of the sums to be shared;
- c. Para 30 – contains corrections for the account into which payment will be made for the benefit of the applicant;
- d. Para 35 – the US pensions are not capable of being shared pursuant to an English pension sharing order.
 - (i) Mr Zahmoul is committed to implementing the terms of the judgment. I have therefore left in the provision – that he shall share the pensions, but removed the provision that it shall be by way of pension sharing order and added the record that this is being done outside of a formal pension sharing order. He will transfer 100% of his Fidelity pension to Mrs Zahmoul.
 - (ii) In drafting I had assumed (wrongly) that there were sufficient funds in his Fidelity Brokerage scheme to fund the entire US pension share. There are not. There is a shortfall of £23,611. It is necessary to transfer funds from another of the respondent's pension schemes. He cannot transfer funds from his Goldman Sachs schemes and so the shortfall of £23,611 is to be drawn from the Malta pension (1%) – and my amendments record that fact (including sharing from funds (a) and (b)). Separately he will transfer 22.64% of the Malta pension to give equality. (That together with 1% to cover the shortfall of the US pension requires a total of 23.64% of the Malta pension to Mrs Zahmoul.
- e. Para 36 contains corrections to the scheme name, as in para 8c above;
- f. Para 38 provides for the respondent to manage the education fund without the applicant in circumstances where Mrs Zahmoul has made it clear that she will not engage in any correspondence from him, which she says she considers to be coercive and controlling.
- g. Para 43 – has been deleted. The respondent is concerned that the applicant will be able to prevent or block the pension arrangements to prevent the respondent from obtaining a decree. She has not responded to any of his efforts today to implement the terms of the judge's order.

Pawned watches

Mr Zahmoul has asked the judge to read the attached note in respect of his watch collection.

Correction

Separately, Mr Zahmoul has noticed the following mistake in the judgment:
At paragraph 34, line 7 the judgment refers to interim periodical payments of "£2,000 per month," but should read "£2,000 per week."

Thank you very much for your help.
Best wishes,
Alexis

Subject: MPS Order

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court's need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs an anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent's representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person."

Kind regards,

Clive Higgleton

Dear judges and Ms. Campbell,

1. Please find attached my application to appeal. I will be adding more grounds of appeal and will serve any amendments on the respondent and the court.
2. I will send a draft order as soon as I can, but it is still not my final draft order because I still do not have money for food, accommodation, basic living expenses, and I still do not have legal representation.
3. I am asking for enforcement of the MPS urgently in order to have equal footing, participate in my proceedings, have a fair trial, and represent my best interests and those of my children. As you can see in the attached MPS exhibit, I made 71 requests for MPS enforcement between 6 March 2024 and 24 May 2024.
4. I have referred Justice MacDonald, Justice Francis, and Sir Jonathan Cohen to the Judicial Conduct Investigations Office (JCIO).
5. I intend to refer Ms. Campbell and Miss Amaouche to the Bar Standards Board.
6. I will figure out which form I need to use to stay the execution of orders and will send as soon as I can.
7. Until I have equal footing, until I have food and accommodation, and until I have legal representation equal to the one the respondent enjoys, no order and no cost orders can be agreed.
8. You have deliberately withheld from enforcing the MPS and you have starved me in order to aid the respondent and in order to make a corrupt judgement with little opposition. The barristers have stood by and done nothing. I am hungry and I don't have a home. I have been asking for enforcement of the MPS payments since 6 March 2024 and your explanations for failing to enforce the MPS order are hollow. Justice MacDonald has falsely accused me only asking for enforcement of the MPS after the judgment was made. This is not true. And it is not a reasonable explanation.
9. Until I have food, a home, and human dignity your orders are not agreed. I have made 71 requests for MPS payments, and I am hungry and homeless. Your corrupted orders are not the right answer. First, I demand my rights for food and shelter, and then, only then, can you make orders, when I have equal arms to represent my best interests and fight the High Court corruption.

Sincerely,

Importance: High

Dear Ms. Campbell,

1. As you know, your client is trying to bully me into executing the orders and he is falsely representing that these orders are final. They are not. Please tell your client that any attempt to misrepresent to the US banks, and other parties that the orders are final will be addressed as a fraud and will result in criminal action against him.
2. I refer to the orders made on Friday 24th May which are not sealed, not served, and which I completely oppose. You know that these orders were made under duress, and you are aware that I have been prevented from having equal footing, equal justice, and equal participation in the legal proceedings.
3. The MPS was used as a tool to starve me, and keep me without food, without a home, and without funds for my basic needs.
4. This cruel abuse of judiciary power was intended to prevent me from participating in my legal proceedings and opposing the corrupted judgment, orders, and cost orders.
5. I sent 71 emails requesting enforcement of the MPS order and all were ignored.
6. You have stood by throughout the abuse; you have witnessed everything, and you did not say a word.
7. You did not provide assistance to my children, even when you knew our lives are in danger and we are being threatened by the Kazakhs and their assassins.
8. The order and cost order are not agreed and as you know, there are illegal in the US for the following reasons: LLC fraud, wrong valuations for the WY properties, taxes not computed properly and do not account for the transfer tax I will incur as a US citizen, Frost st properties not appraised and the division is not agreed. You are truly behaving as if you were in an autocratic regime.
9. In the meantime, the IRS Criminal Division is making progress in their criminal investigation of your client.
10. I will make a referral to the SEC, FINRA, and the KleptoCapture taskforce in the US. In the UK, I will make a criminal referral to the CPS and to the FCA.
11. I intend to make application to stay the fraudulent orders until there is a proper appeal and until the corruption of the High Court judges is exposed and addressed publicly.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I have noticed an error on one of the paragraph references. Page 9, paragraph 27(b) refers to "paragraph 24(a)". It should read "paragraph 27(a)". I have highlighted it as attached. This is not a substantive change. This is a simple error of internal cross -referencing (not updating as new paragraphs have been added). I would be very grateful if this could be amended under the slip rule.

I apologise for not noticing this earlier.

Thank you.

Dear Karen,

My draft order is not ready yet. I am without money for food and accommodation and have been unwell for since we were followed, and our lives were in danger on 24 March 2024. I have been in a situation of hardship since March 2024 as a result of the judge not enforcing the MPS order.

I wrote to the judge on 9 April 2024 to inform him that our lives were in danger and to this date he has not expressed any concerns nor taken any actions about it. His only comment was that the email was "hard to follow". This is extremely dishonest, and I have now sent the matter for appeal.

This order is illegal and is not agreed. It not final until my draft order can be considered and until I have equal footing in this case.

I am appealing the entire order and will apply to stay all orders until I can have food, accommodation and legal representation before a final order is made, not after.

Releasing the money post facto is not acceptable and it is not a way of conducting justice. This is something Justice MacDonald has failed to do, and it is well documented.

Why has he not exercised his power to enforce the MPS since February 2024?

Why has he put the children and me through three months of hardship?

What matters is my ability to participate in my proceedings, which has been stolen from me by abuse of power and financial strangulation.

I am attaching once again the MPS enforcement application.

I have not been able to participate in my legal proceedings because of Justice MacDonald.

This is the 72nd time I have requested enforcement of the MPS.

Sincerely,

Nadia

Dear Karen,

This is my bank balance: £89.

It has been mostly overdrawn throughout March, April, and May 2024 as my 85-year-old father is no longer able to support the children and me.

How does the judge think the children and I survived in March, April, and May 2024?

Why is the judge abusing his judiciary power to force us into such a situation of hardship?

How does the judge think this situation is fair when the respondent has control and ownership of assets between £12m and £500+m? (BTC is now $70,000 therefore my estimates of our assets have increased in line with the BTC price).

What has this situation of starvation achieved?

Answer: it has forced me into illness, homelessness, hunger, instability, fear, distress, worry, anxiety, and rage at the injustice. It has forced me out and prevented me from participating in my own legal proceedings.

The judge will have to answer to this. He alone is responsible for our hardship. His argument that I applied for MPS after the judgement was made is hollow, dishonest, and obfuscates the truth.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear all,

As you know, Mr. Zahmoul is subject to an ongoing criminal investigation by IRS CI Cyber Unit, New York. The investigation is focused on his money laundering activities of prostitution proceeds and I have been informed that it is now with the Prosecutor.

Below is a link to a public YouTube video posted by Miss Molina, a self-declared sex worker and a madam, and Mr. Zahmoul's girlfriend from 2018 to 2020.

She states in her video that Mr. Zahmoul was the mastermind of her business and she directly implicates him.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ICONR0jV33o>

During the proceedings, Mr. Zahmoul attributed several crypto wallets to her, equivalent to several millions of dollars.

I informed the court-appointed crypto expert Mr. Marlon Pinto, on 8 February 2024. He immediately realized the seriousness of the matter and he told me he forwarded all the information to Justice MacDonald and received instructions to attend the court on 19 February 2024 for his expert testimony.

This email and the next 3 emails were all sent to Justice MacDonald.

Dear Mrs Zahmoul,

Please see attached.

Please note that I am no longer engaged by Stowe / Mr Zahmoul. Consequently, I cannot continue to forward emails to Mr Zahmoul on your behalf.

You will have to find another way of communicating with Mr Zahmoul.

I suggest emails are the simplest form of communication as there is documentary evidence of that communication that either of you can rely upon if you need to.

You have Mr Zahmoul's email address attached.

If you intend to serve anything on the court you must ensure that Mr Zahmoul is provided with copies of your correspondence.

I will not be responding to your correspondence from now on unless I have an obligation to do so. I do not intend to be rude in doing so. I have other cases to manage and I cannot continue to focus on this case when I am no longer instructed to do so. Please stop copying me in on further communication.

Dear Ms. Campbell and Karen,

This is nor agreed. I do not agree to an anonymized judgement, especially when my children and I are demanding full transparency and Kenes Rakishev is the only one who wants anonymization. Ms. Campbell, you are simply demonstrating to all of us who the real mastermind of your strategy is. We knew this all along. I don't anonymization and my daughters don't want either. We want transparency, as does Sir McFarlane. Your reasons to request anonymization are extremely deficient, but the fact that this is the first thing you ask for is extremely telling.

And why are anxious that the full judgment is available to the public?

The judgment and the orders are illegal, and they are completely false. I will send you this afternoon a full list of the false statements in the order and I will make them public.

They cannot even be public. You will see when I send you my corrections. However the most important point is that they are illegal because it the judges and you who kept me and the children without food, accommodation, and without money for basic needs for no other reason than to break me, weaken me, and ensure that I could not have equal footing. For this reason, your judgment, your orders and your cost orders are illegal. This may a way of doing business in Kazakhstan but I am afraid we are in the UK and in this country you do not put an applicant in a situation of cruelty, hunger, hardship, and homelessness in order to impose your corrupted and false judgment and orders. You simply cannot do this in the UK. Now you did it, but your actions make your judgment and orders illegitimate and corrupted. The do not carry any weight and no respect.

The order, the judgment, the cost order, and the anonymized judgement are not agreed because there were done while the court did not enforce the MPS and robbed me of my human rights. I repeat that your client did not make MPS payments since February 2024 and that the court did not enforce it, forcing me in hunger, homelessness, and without a penny for my legal representation.

Your concern for anonymization only proves that your number priority is to hide Kenes Rakishev from these proceedings.

He is the one who corrupted the judges and corrupted you and you only concern it seems is to make sure his name is kept away from the proceedings.

Is this transparency?

I do not want anonymization and like everything else, I was not able to submit any orders because the judge did not enforce the MPS.

The judgment, the orders and the anonymization are not agreed and are illegal because you and the judges forced me in a situation of hardship and prevented me from participating in the legal proceedings.

The only thing you want is to protect the Kazakh oligarch. This is so telling. This is so corrupt.

There is no order, there is no cost orders and there is anonymization given how you and the judges kept me without funds since February 2024.

If you want to have a productive dialog and if you want to make proper progress, you will have to first explain why you and the court kept me without maintenance money, without food, without accommodation, and in extreme distress, ill health and hardship since February 2024 and why do you think that you have an order that is fair, legal, and impartial?

I emailed you 71 times pleading for maintenance money.

It is a bit late to worry about Kenes Rakishev being exposed.

The orders and the anonymization are illegal because you abused me, and you purposely kept me without food and accommodation. Your client controls all the assets and all the liquidity.

How do you think the children and I can pay for food and accommodation?

And all you worry about is the anonymization to protect the Kazakh oligarch who corrupted you and corrupted the courts?

I object and I oppose. You are not allowed to make any orders until you explain why you did not enforce the maintenance order and until you take responsibility for our hardship, our hunger, our homelessness, and our ill health.

Ms. Campbell, this was not a fair and impartial trial. Please have some shame and please stop pushing for the interests of the Kazakh kleptocrat.

There is no law in the world that gives you the right to make a judgment and those orders while committing an illegal act against my children and my human rights to live and have a fair trial.

If I had food, accommodation, and funds to instruct legal representation, you would never have been able to make such a corrupted judgment and order.

You have revealed you cards with you panic email requesting anonymization; this is another clear evidence of corruption. I invite everyone to think who does the anonymization benefit?

I don't want it because I only want transparency and truth. My daughters don't want it because they want the truth, and they know their father is a criminal and a manipulator.

So, who is the anonymization serving and protecting?

I don't want it and I oppose it. I demand full transparency. I demand equal footing and I demand that you stop abusing your power.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Subject: DRAFT FINAL ORDER - ZAHMOUL

Dear Karen,

Re: Zahmoul

Please find attached for his Lordship's consideration on behalf of the respondent husband:

1. Slightly amended DRAFT ORDER;
2. A pension sharing annex;
3. Net effect schedule to explain the pension sharing figures; and
4. A note from Mr Zahmoul with regard to his watches.

Draft Order:

We have not had any substantive response to our draft order from Mrs Zahmoul.

In the interim, Mr Zahmoul has asked for the following amendments (deletions marked as ~~striketrough~~ or added in red, bold underlined) to be incorporated into your final draft:

- a. Para 8 c – contains corrections for the names of the pension in Malta;
- b. Para 10 gives clearer definition of the sums to be shared;
- c. Para 30 – contains corrections for the account into which payment will be made for the benefit of the applicant;
- d. Para 35 – the US pensions are not capable of being shared pursuant to an English pension sharing order.
 - (i) Mr Zahmoul is committed to implementing the terms of the judgment. I have therefore left in the provision – that he shall share the pensions, but removed the provision that it shall be by way of pension sharing order and added the record that this is being done outside of a formal pension sharing order. He will transfer 100% of his Fidelity pension to Mrs Zahmoul.

- (ii) In drafting I had assumed (wrongly) that there were sufficient funds in his Fidelity Brokerage scheme to fund the entire US pension share. There are not. There is a shortfall of £23,611. It is necessary to transfer funds from another of the respondent's pension schemes. He cannot transfer funds from his Goldman Sachs schemes and so the shortfall of £23,611 is to be drawn from the Malta pension (1%) – and my amendments record that fact (including sharing from funds (a) and (b)). Separately he will transfer 22.64% of the Malta pension to give equality. (That together with 1% to cover the shortfall of the US pension requires a total of 23.64% of the Malta pension to Mrs Zahmoul).
- e. Para 36 contains corrections to the scheme name, as in para 8c above;
- f. Para 38 provides for the respondent to manage the education fund without the applicant in circumstances where Mrs Zahmoul has made it clear that she will not engage in any correspondence from him, which she says she considers to be coercive and controlling.
- g. Para 43 – has been deleted. The respondent is concerned that the applicant will be able to prevent or block the pension arrangements to prevent the respondent from obtaining a decree. She has not responded to any of his efforts today to implement the terms of the judge's order.

Pawned watches

Mr Zahmoul has asked the judge to read the attached note in respect of his watch collection.

Correction

Separately, Mr Zahmoul has noticed the following mistake in the judgment:

At paragraph 34, line 7 the judgment refers to interim periodical payments of "£2,000 per month," but should read "£2,000 per week."

Thank you very much for your help.

Best wishes,

Alexis

Subject: MPS Order

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court’s need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs an anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent’s representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person.”

Kind regards,

Clive Higgleton

Dear all,

Mr. MacDonald states that the Wyoming properties at 3100 and 3093 Arrowhead Rd are worth £3,690,385 and £4,382,196 respectively, and that the value of the properties at Frost St is £1,992,033. These valuations are hand-picked by the respondent, and they appear in his ES2 form, submitted at the Final Hearing. The valuations are grossly deficient, and they completely ignore the tax consequences of the division of the real estate assets.

It is shameful that the barristers did not raise the issue, and that the judges failed in their duty to make a fair and equitable judgment. The judgment and the orders are corrupted, and wrong.

The judge knows that I am a US citizen, and that the respondent is French/Tunisian. Had the judge considered the tax impact of the real estate division as it would be expected of a High Court judge, he would have made a more accurate and well-reasoned judgement, correctly concluding that the net value of his proposed division of real estate assets is $3,962,782 to me and $5,155,796 to the respondent. He would have then found that a balancing exercise was necessary in order to achieve fairness and equity.

Instead, the judge did not consider the tax impact of the division of real estate assets, and he did not consider the evidence submitted in the court bundle, in submissions, in four years of proceedings, and in oral testimonies. This is entirely unacceptable.

The judge made a decision which is deficient, wrong, biased, and grossly unfair.

The judge knows that as a result of my US citizenship, "a property transfer from me to the respondent will result in gain recognition of all unrealized appreciation associated with the property. The respondent will receive a 'stepped-up' basis on the transferred asset."

The judge knows that: “the respondent can make property transfers to me with no federal income tax consequences as the transfer can be effectively treated as a gift. I will receive the respondent’s basis in the property (presumably there will be a built-in gain).”

My CPA prepared a tax memo setting forth the tax consequences under three different scenarios. I submitted an updated computation of the tax memo in pages 38-41 of my section 25 statement and the judge told me during the trial that he read “everything” (page 42 in the transcript notes).

If I transfer my share in 3100 Arrowhead Rd to the respondent, it will immediately trigger a gain recognition of $1,044,759 and the respondent will have tax savings of his stepped-up basis of $1,034,000.

Overall, the value of the proposed transfer of 3100 Arrowhead to the respondent and 3093 Arrowhead to me will be as follows:

Respondent: $5,155,796

Applicant: $3,962,782

The respondent submitted the attached asset schedule for the Final Hearing. I explained in cross examination that I do not have a balance sheet because I do not own any assets and it is simply impossible to build an asset schedule or a schedule of taxes when one does not have assets. Please see page 18 in the transcript. The judge appeared to fully understand the logic at that time. Nevertheless, his judgments contain extremely demeaning and derogatory language towards me, peppering the judgments with unfair accusations.

The facts remain simple: I cannot produce an asset schedule without assets, much like one cannot get a chest X-ray without a chest.

This is bullying, and abuse of judiciary powers.

- Ms. Campbell, why are the tax computations in the respondent’s ES2 hard coded? I made the same comment during the cross examination.
- Ms. Campbell, why did your client fail to represent the tax consequences accurately and honestly for each party? I am a US citizen, and he is not. There are huge tax consequences for me. Why did you not advise your client to be honest?
- Do you not know that the transfer of real estate assets from a US citizen to a non-US citizen triggers immediate gain recognition? Does Mr. Molyneux also not know? Do Mr. MacDonald and Sir Cohen know?
- Ms. Campbell, why is your client making perjuries in his ES2 form with regards to the acquisition price of the two properties in Wyoming? Surely, you know that we did not buy 3100 Arrowhead Rd for $6.2m in 2017? Surely you know that we did not buy 3093 Arrowhead Rd for $6.2m in 2020?
- Ms. Campbell, do you understand the consequences for me of your client’s perjuries and lies? Do you understand why he falsely represented the acquisition price of the two properties, can you quantify the negative impact on me, and do you understand how much he benefits from these perjuries?

It is your duty and the duty of the judges to understand these matters, or you cannot make a fair judgement, and your authority stands on nothingness.

It is your duty to correct the mistakes and the false representations because they have real consequences on fairness and equity.

Please send me the corrected schedule as soon as possible.

The judgments and the order are not agreed until I have maintenance money for food, accommodation, basic needs, and until I have equal footing. I demand the right to participate in my proceedings. This is illegal and wrong. Your judgments and orders are shameful and are corrupted. They are a farce.

The documents are uploaded to the Foundation's website. My next email will examine the Wyoming LLC fraud.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

Could you please ask the judge for an extension as I am struggling to prepare my own draft order, my cost order, and my submission for anonymization by myself.

I have not had a fair proceeding, I have not had MPS payments since February 2024 and I am without food, without accommodation and without money for my basic needs.

I have no legal representation and I struggling to do the work by myself.

I ask for equal footing and equal access to justice.

I cannot work any faster that I am doing, and, unlike the respondent, I don't have food, accommodation and three barristers assisting me.

There is a significant number of mistakes, wrong numbers, wrong computations, and simply unacceptable aspects in the court order which I would like to address to protect my position and my best interest.

These proceedings are complex, and it is unfair and unjust to keep me from participating by means of financial inequity.

I need the time to do the work to represent my interest under the current difficult and unfair circumstances.

One more time, I am asking the judge to enforce the MPS so I can have a fair proceeding.

Please advise if there is a form I must complete for an extension.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I am again requesting an extension in order to have a fair trial. I am unable to complete the orders without someone like Ms Campbell helping me.

I have been working non-stop but there are significant deficiencies with the judgment, and I cannot do this by myself.

It would be very unfair and unjust to make the order which is inconsistent with so many aspects of my position, including the fact that I do not wish to share a penny with the respondent until the end of his life, and the fact that all the tax numbers are wrong, and that committed perjury and fraud in Wyoming and money laundering of prostitution proceeds which is putting us at risk of asset forfeiture.

None of the above matters will disappear once the order is made, but it will enable the respondent to enforce financial decisions which are wrong, and some of them are outright fraud under the US Tax Code. This is not a situation which is fair, and I have been asking for fairness, maintenance funds, and equal footings since February, 71 times.

I am asking for my right to participate in the proceedings and represent my children's and my best interest. I refuse to have the respondent control any of our future in his hands, that is cruel.

I have not had a chance to defend myself and have been forced out with lack of money and legal assistance.

Please advise which form I should submit to have a fair and equitable proceeding.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Karen,

I have noticed an error on one of the paragraph references. Page 9, paragraph 27(b) refers to “paragraph 24(a)”. It should read “paragraph 27(a)”. I have highlighted it as attached. This is not a substantive change. This is a simple error of internal cross -referencing (not updating as new paragraphs have been added). I would be very grateful if this could be amended under the slip rule.

Dear Karen,

Could you please ask the judge for an extension as I am struggling to prepare my own draft order, my cost order, and my submission for anonymization by myself.

I have not had a fair proceeding, I have not had MPS payments since February 2024 and I am without food, without accommodation and without money for my basic needs.

I have no legal representation and I struggling to do the work by myself.

I ask for equal footing and equal access to justice.

I cannot work any faster that I am doing, and, unlike the respondent, I don't have food, accommodation and three barristers assisting me.

There is a significant number of mistakes, wrong numbers, wrong computations, and simply unacceptable aspects in the court order which I would like to address to protect my position and my best interest.

These proceedings are complex, and it is unfair and unjust to keep me from participating by means of financial inequity.

I need the time to do the work to represent my interest under the current difficult and unfair circumstances.

One more time, I am asking the judge to enforce the MPS so I can have a fair proceeding.

Please advise if there is a form I must complete for an extension.

Sincerely,
Nadia

Dear Ms Zahmoul,

Please see below reply from Mr Justice MacDonald:

The court handed down its final judgment on 18 April 2024. The court refused the wife's application for permission to appeal on 29 April 2024 and refused a stay. The court handed down its decision as to costs and made its final order on 24 May 2024 (subject to an amendment approved by the court under the slip rule on 3 June 2024). The anonymised judgments were published on The National Archive on 4 June 2024. In the circumstances, the current involvement of this court in the proceedings has now concluded.

As made clear in paragraph 20 of the judgment of 29 April 2024 refusing the wife's application for permission to appeal and declining to grant a stay, the wife has a right to apply for permission to appeal the decision of the court to the Court of Appeal (whilst the wife has purported to appeal to the Supreme Court, that is not the appropriate appellate route in the circumstances). The wife is entitled to apply to the Court of Appeal for a stay of the order when making any application to the Court of Appeal for permission to appeal.

Many thanks

Ms. Campbell,

You do not decide when the case is closed or when you stop reading my emails. It is irrelevant to me.

You decided to act unethically and to not report to the Bar what your conduct demands that your report.

You cannot undo what you did.

Your ethical misconduct will be exposed, and your reputation will be in ruins.

As I previously stated, I am only getting started and will dedicate the rest of my life to corruption and injustice. You can starve me off funds, you can force me into poverty, hunger, and homelessness, you can corrupt the judgment and the orders and take away my rights for life and for a fair trial, but you cannot stop me.

You said twice at the trial that I was “tenacious” which after Rakishev corrupted the judge, became “obsessed”.

You are correct, I am tenacious, and I will make sure this corruption of High Court judges and collaboration of barristers never happens again.

You cannot bully me, and you cannot intimidate me. What you have done is so transparent it will not be difficult to expose.

Sincerely,

Nadia

The court handed down its decision as to costs and made its final order on 24 May 2024 (subject to an amendment approved by the court under the slip rule on 3 June 2024). The anonymised judgments were published on The National Archive on 4 June 2024. In the circumstances, the current involvement of this court in the proceedings has now concluded.

As made clear in paragraph 20 of the judgment of 29 April 2024 refusing the wife's application for permission to appeal and declining to grant a stay, the wife has a right to apply for permission to appeal the decision of the court to the Court of Appeal (whilst the wife has purported to appeal to the Supreme Court, that is not the appropriate appellate route in the circumstances). The wife is entitled to apply to the Court of Appeal for a stay of the order when making any application to the Court of Appeal for permission to appeal.

Many thanks
Kind regards

Karen

Dear all,

The White House/ June 6th, 2024

Remarks by President Biden Commemorating the 80th Anniversary of D-Day- Normandy American Cemetery- Colleville-sur-Mer, France (full remarks here).

"And make no mistake, the autocrats of the world are watching closely to see what happens in Ukraine, to see if we let this illegal aggression go unchecked. We cannot let that happen.

To surrender to bullies, to bow down to dictators is simply unthinkable. (Applause.) Were we to do that, it means we'd be forgetting what happened here on these hallowed beaches. Make no mistake: We will not bow down. We will not forget.

In their generation, in their hour of trial, the Allied forces of D-Day did their duty. Now the question for us is: In our hour of trial, will we do ours?

We're living in a time when democracy is more at risk across the world than at any point since the end of the World War Two — since these beaches were stormed in 1944.

Now, we have to ask ourselves: Will we stand against tyranny, against evil, against crushing brutality of the iron fist?

Will we stand for freedom? Will we defend democracy? Will we stand together?

(Applause.)

My answer is yes. And it only can be yes. (Applause.)"

Mr. MacDonald J. and Ms. Campbell KC

Justice MacDonald sent me an email on 5th June 2024 stating: "As made clear in the reply of 4 June 2024, the current involvement of this court in the proceedings has now concluded. In the circumstances, neither the judge nor the judge's clerk will be responding further to emails sent by the parties to the court" (here).

I understand Mr. MacDonald J. that you consider the proceedings have concluded and that the case is closed. This is acceptable had it been a fair and impartial trial. Your judgment and your Final Orders were corrupted by Kenes Rakishev and as such, this case is not closed and will not be closed until you and Ms. Campbell KC are investigated. You may have immunity, but she does not. You lost your voice of authority when you decided to make this fraudulent judgment and orders. This case will be closed when justice is done and when your corrupted judgment is undone.

This is the UK, Mr. MacDonald, this is not Kazakhstan.

Mr. MacDonald is the leading judge in England and Wales for Children.

1. On 8th and 9th April 2024, I emailed Mr. MacDonald in confidentiality stating that my 16-year-old daughter Lila Mae and I had been followed by Kenes Rakishev's men on 24th March 2024 from Kensington High St tube station to the flat where we were staying. I provided background information on Kenes Rakishev explaining why this was a huge threat to our safety, including his close relationship with Ramzan Kadyrov, his relationship with Pavel Krotov, his involvement with Hunter Biden, his support to Putin, his role in supplying Arlan mine-resistant armored platform military vehicles to Kadyrov, his assassination plot to kill Felix Sater, and more. The confidential document with exhibits is here.
2. I shared with Mr. MacDonald an investigative report of OCCRP available here. In his judgment of 29 April 2024, the judge qualified my email of 9th April 2024 as "difficult to follow". The email and the evidence I sent to Mr. MacDonald are here and the information from the Hunter Biden laptop is here. The judge's derogatory remark and his excuse for dismissing it are in paragraph 9 here.
3. The leading judge for Children in England and Wales did not raise any concerns for the safety of a 16-year-old teenager who was followed by Rakishev's men and is now traumatized as a result.
4. This is the third incident I have been involved in and which are directly related to Kenes Rakishev, as stated in my confidential email to the judge.
5. I have now referred the incident of 24th March 2024 to the Met Police and included information on the relationship and business dealings of Mr. Zahmoul with Kenes Rakishev.
6. I refuse to accept Mr. MacDonald's dismissal of my email of 9th April 2024 stating that my daughter and I were in danger, and I demand an inquiry and an explanation for his decision to dismiss it and put my daughter's life in danger. My email was confidential, and he dismissed the confidentiality status, exposing the children and me to grave danger. My daughters and I are in danger as a result of Mr. Zahmoul's association with Kenes Rakishev. The judge's dismissal of my email is unacceptable, irresponsible, and puts us our lives at risk. A non-corrupted judge would never has dismissed the email, and his excuse that it was "difficult to follow" does not stand up to scrutiny. The information is from OCCRP, and it is crystal clear.

Ms. Campbell KC: Please tell your client that he has to pay the college fees overdue for our older daughter. I am emailing you the invoice. This is urgent. I am in receipt of your email stating that the matter is closed. However, it is not closed until the corruption is addressed and until your role in supporting the High Court is investigated by the Bar Standards Board.

The case will be open as long as it takes and until justice is done. You are not above the law, and you do not have immunity. Your email is here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gargano: You had knowledge of Mr. Zahmoul's criminal activities and money laundering of prostitution proceeds since the summer of 2020. I attach our WhatsApp conversation here. I have shared it with IRS CI. You aided Mr. Zahmoul to divert joint matrimonial funds from MCBNY to his sole benefit and you knowingly caused me to incur a financial loss.

Mr. Lawton: You are not authorised to make any changes to our bank accounts at Bank of Jackson Hole and you are not authorised to open any account for 3093 AH LLC until further instructions from me, or from a US authority. The UK court order is fraudulent, and the judge was corrupted by Kenes Rakishev. The evidence regarding your collusion with Mr. Zahmoul to facilitate integration in the US banking system of his criminal activities and his money laundering proceeds of prostitution has been passed to the relevant agencies and law enforcement.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul

Dear Karen,

I have noticed an error on one of the paragraph references. Page 9, paragraph 27(b) refers to "paragraph 24(a)". It should read "paragraph 27(a)". I have highlighted it as attached. This is not a substantive change. This is a simple error of internal cross -referencing (not updating as new paragraphs have been added). I would be very grateful if this could be amended under the slip rule.

I apologise for not noticing this earlier.

Thank you.

Best wishes,

Subject: DRAFT FINAL ORDER - ZAHMOUL

Dear Karen,

Re: Zahmoul

Please find attached for his Lordship's consideration on behalf of the respondent husband:

1. Slightly amended DRAFT ORDER;

2. A pension sharing annex;
3. Net effect schedule to explain the pension sharing figures; and
4. A note from Mr Zahmoul with regard to his watches.

Draft Order:

We have not had any substantive response to our draft order from Mrs Zahmoul.

In the interim, Mr Zahmoul has asked for the following amendments (deletions marked as ~~striketrough~~ or added in red, bold underlined) to be incorporated into your final draft:

- a. Para 8 c – contains corrections for the names of the pension in Malta;
- b. Para 10 gives clearer definition of the sums to be shared;
- c. Para 30 – contains corrections for the account into which payment will be made for the benefit of the applicant;
- d. Para 35 – the US pensions are not capable of being shared pursuant to an English pension sharing order.
 - (i) Mr Zahmoul is committed to implementing the terms of the judgment. I have therefore left in the provision – that he shall share the pensions, but removed the provision that it shall be by way of pension sharing order and added the record that this is being done outside of a formal pension sharing order. He will transfer 100% of his Fidelity pension to Mrs Zahmoul.
 - (ii) In drafting I had assumed (wrongly) that there were sufficient funds in his Fidelity Brokerage scheme to fund the entire US pension share. There are not. There is a shortfall of £23,611. It is necessary to transfer funds from another of the respondent's pension schemes. He cannot transfer funds from his Goldman Sachs schemes and so the shortfall of £23,611 is to be drawn from the Malta pension (1%) – and my amendments record that fact (including sharing from funds (a) and (b)). Separately he will transfer 22.64% of the Malta pension to give equality. (That together with 1% to cover the shortfall of the US pension requires a total of 23.64% of the Malta pension to Mrs Zahmoul).
- e. Para 36 contains corrections to the scheme name, as in para 8c above;
- f. Para 38 provides for the respondent to manage the education fund without the applicant in circumstances where Mrs Zahmoul has made it clear that she will not engage in any correspondence from him, which she says she considers to be coercive and controlling.
- g. Para 43 – has been deleted. The respondent is concerned that the applicant will be able to prevent or block the pension arrangements to prevent the respondent from obtaining a decree. She has not responded to any of his efforts today to implement the terms of the judge's order.

Pawned watches

Mr Zahmoul has asked the judge to read the attached note in respect of his watch collection.

Correction

Separately, Mr Zahmoul has noticed the following mistake in the judgment:

At paragraph 34, line 7 the judgment refers to interim periodical payments of "£2,000 per month," but should read "£2,000 per week."

Thank you very much for your help.

Best wishes,
Alexis

Subject: MPS Order

Dear all,

I have been asked to share the below message:

“The court has not taken any decision on the application to enforce the MPS order. The court cannot deal with the application to enforce on the papers and without giving the respondent an opportunity to respond.

The MPS application was sent to the court on Thursday 2 May 2024. The application was not accompanied by the required application fee and has not been issued by the court office. When the required fee has been paid and the application has been issued and served in accordance with the rules, it will be given a listing on notice to the respondent in the ordinary way.

The enforcement of the MPS order is, however, a separate issue to the court’s need now to approve the final order embodying the decision set out in its judgment, which was handed down as long ago as 18 April 2024.

The draft order proposed by the husband has now been provided to the wife, together with his written submissions as to costs and his proposals for the anonymisation of the judgment.

Any representations the wife has with respect to the terms of the order, together with any representations as to costs and anonymisation, must now be sent to the court in writing, copied to the respondent's representatives by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024.

If no written representations from the wife are received by 4pm on Tuesday 14 May 2024 the court will proceed to consider the terms of the order, and to determine the question of costs and anonymisation, in their absence.

It is not appropriate to stay these proceedings in circumstances where the order remains outstanding. The inability of a party to secure legal representation is not a reason for staying proceedings in circumstances where a party is entitled to conduct proceedings as a litigant in person."

Kind regards,

Dear Karen,

I do not understand why all these orders state that Brent Molyneux KC represented me. This is inaccurate and it constitutes a misleading statement.

I have not had legal representative since 7 March 2024.

I did not have any counsel review the judgment on my behalf, I did not have counsel make a draft order on my behalf, I did not have counsel make submissions for my costs, I did not have counsel respond to Ms. Campbell's draft orders for Pensions, for costs, for anonymization, for the watches, for the judgment, and for the division of assets, I did not have legal counsel do a net effect spread sheet.

I did not have equal footing, and this was tactical because Mr. MacDonald and Sir Jonathan Cohen were corrupted by Kenes Rakishev and they did not want me to have legal counsel, food, accommodation, and basic needs in order to suppress the facts, the evidence. The only way they could achieve a judgment so grotesque as the one they handed down is literally by starving me.

Mr. Zahmoul had a team of solicitors headed by Henry Crisp and at least three barristers, including Ms. Campbell KC, co-head of chambers at 29 Bedford Row Chambers.

His legal fees are paid by Kenes Rakishev and only the front row of his legal strategy and legal team is visible. Behind the scenes it is Hogan Lovells pulling the strings.

I have had no maintenance payments for my children since February 2024, no maintenance payments for food, accommodation, and basic needs, no equal footings, and no legal representation since 7th March 2024.

I insist on complete transparency as this judgment is corrupted and it is going to be a very public judgment of Ms. Campbell, Mr. MacDonald, Mr. Francis, and Sir Cohen.

I would therefore ask you to please amend all the orders, costs, pensions, watches etc. and remove Brent Molyneux KC, including from the judgment handed down on 18 April 2024.

Mr. Molyneux KC made it very clear he has nothing to do with this corruption.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Nadia Zahmoul
