Dear GLD & Administrative Court,

I hope this message finds you well. Unfortunately, this order is the first notification we have received in relation to the Judicial review. We have not been served with the application or grounds for the Judicial review and, therefore, without the provision of these documents, we are unable to acknowledge service on behalf of HMCTS.

Could you please provide us with the necessary documents at your earliest convenience? This would enable us to proceed accordingly and fulfil our obligations.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Kind regards,

T. Kemp | User Investigations Officer (Litigation)
